COAL DUTIES BEFORE CUSTOMS BOARD

Tolmie Has Two New Offers For P. G. E. Railway

Provincial Line Daily Increasing In Value, Declares Premier, and Money Is Being Made by Delaying Sale; Colonization on a Large Scale Is Feature of All Recent Bids; British and United States Financiers in Bidding Competition for Railway.

Two additional bids for the Pacific Great Eastern Railway were this week filed with the Provincial Government, Premier S. F. Tolmie this morning announced.

One of the offers is from a new British entrant in the "battle of bids," Dr. Tolmie stated, refusing to divulge names at the present time. The other tender is a radical improvement in price and terms, replacing a bid already on file.

"Many syndicates are now submitting offers for the railway," declared Dr. Tolmie. "The Province is losing nothing by the decision of the Government to delay negotiations pending completion of the resources survey now in hand. On the contrary the market worth of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway is mounting daily."

MANY INTERESTED

All the offers before the Government have been submitted through British Columbia representatives, and indicate interest in the line by British, Canadian and United States financial interests. Some of the bids are supported by joint participation of British and United States capital.

Dr. Tolmie stated that all the bids feature programmes of settlement and colonization. Recent offers indicate the Province will receive much larger monetary returns than were earlier offered and will also benefit from an important campaign of colonization, no matter what offer is finally accepted.

GO HAND IN HAND

"Colonization on a large scale will go hand in hand with the sale of the railway, that is the only conclusion to be drawn from the offers we are now receiving," Dr. Tolmie remarked.

"The tour of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, recently completed by the members of the Government, showed us that this Province has a great asset in the line. It is a good property. Recent increases in the number and value of the offers received show there is no cause to hasten the sale. When our resources survey is completed will be time enough to talk sale of the railway. The Province is making money by the delay," the Premier said.

ARZOFF MURDER BAFFLES POLICE

No Clue in Vancouver Case of Man Strangled and Robbed

Vancouver, Sept. 27.—Police have released the young woman who was held for questioning in connection with the murder of Peter Arzoff.

Detectives state the case is becoming more mystifying every day. Intensive search among possible acquaintances of the dead Russian has failed to furnish any definitely satisfactory clue on which the persons believed to have robbed and strangled Arzoff may be tracked down and arrested.

"Death from violence at the hands of a person or persons," says the verdict returned by the coroner's jury at the inquest held Wednesday in New Westminster.

An autopsy performed Tuesday by Dr. D. A. Clark in New Westminster, and reported at the inquest, revealed the fact that the murdered man's skull had not been fractured, as investigators believed at first, though at least two of his ribs had been broken.

It is thought strangulation may have been the cause of death; though it is impossible, in view of the discoloration and decomposition of the head and neck to detect actual marks establishing the theory.

New Westminster authorities have discovered that Arzoff's first name is "Kreamm." He was known to his associates at Powell River as Peter, and signed the register at the Empress Hotel, using "P." as his initial. This accounts for the fact that his belt buckle bore the initials K.A.

LEIGHTON TO BE RETURNING OFFICER HERE

P. R. Leighton has been appointed returning officer for the Dominion by-election, to be held in Victoria riding to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Hon. S. F. Tolmie. H. W. Goggin was first appointed to the post of returning officer, but declined on the ground that as sheriff he is a member of the Provincial Civil Service.

NORTHCOTT SR. REFUSES TO AID

Pocketbook Closed to Son Charged With Riverside Murders

But Believes Stories of Slayings Result of Hallucinations

Los Angeles, Sept. 27.—The pocketbook of Cyrus Northcott, from which came money to buy the Wineville chicken farm where his son, Gordon Stewart Northcott, is accused of torturing and slaying boys, has been closed to the youth's fight against extradition from Canada.

The aged carpenter made this clear last night in his cell, in the Riverside county jail where he is held as a material witness in the case.

"SOMETHING WRONG"

"I will not put up any money to aid him in the fight," the elder Northcott told Riverside officials. "I think there is something wrong with the boy mentally or he would not have operated all through Southern California under half a dozen assumed names."

The father, however, said he was by no means convinced that his son had committed the murders of which he had been accused. He said he still believed that the stories which had been told him by his son and his grandson, fifteen-year-old Sanford Clark were the result of hallucinations and the desire of Gordon to be a man of mystery to his friends and neighbors.

From the laboratories of chemists and criminologists where the authorities had placed a half hundred separate items for examination and analysis, bits of possible evidence in the case continued to trickle forth to-day.

ENVELOPES COMPARED

J. Clark Sellers, criminologist employed by Riverside County, said he had determined that envelopes found on the Wineville ranch were the same in size, color and texture as those in which letters were sent by Louis and Nelson Winslow to their parents in Pomona, California. Young Clark's story was that his uncle, Gordon Northcott, forced the boys to write letters after he had kidnapped them and tortured them on the Riverside ranch. Later, according to the nephew Northcott put the boys to death.

London, Sept. 27—The U.S. reply to the Anglo-French naval agreement has been received at the U.S. Embassy here and to-day was being decided. It was not definitely known when it would be presented to the British foreign secretary, but it was thought that it would be handed him to-morrow.

Paris, Sept. 27—The text of the U.S. reply to the Anglo-French naval agreement has been received in Paris by the U.S. Embassy and will be handed to the French Foreign Office to-morrow.

LOEB BACK AT MANUAL LABOR

Order Also Removes "Thrill" Murderer From Private Cell at Joliet

Chicago, Sept. 27—Richard Loeb, who with Nathan Leopold Jr. is serving a life sentence for the "thrill" murder of Bobby Franks, has lost his "soft job" at the Joliet prison.

Loeb has been serving as secretary to an assistant warden. To-day he found himself assigned to manual labor in the yards. The order also removed him from his private cell and placed him in the cell block with other prisoners.

Early this week Hinton C. Clabaugh, chairman of the State Pardon Board, said that through an error in commitment papers both Loeb and Leopold would be eligible to apply for a parole within six years. Clabaugh alluded to Loeb and Leopold as the "pampered pets" of Joliet, and said they were building up "fine records" for presentation to the Pardons Board when the time came.

Supreme Court To Hear Arguments On Waterpower Rights

St. Lawrence Development Among Important Questions for Consideration; Rights of Province on Surplus of Federally Developed Works Is Main Issue; British Columbia Represented.

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—Dominion and Provincial rights to waterpowers will be argued in the Supreme Court of Canada next week. Recognized as one of the most important questions, with far-reaching ramifications, which has come before the courts in years, the matter undoubtedly will be carried to the Privy Council in England for final adjudication.

Development of the potential waterpowers of the St. Lawrence, inland inter-provincial in character, development of waterpower on the Ottawa River and a number of other power projects, all these are vitally concerned in the points to be decided respecting Federal and Provincial jurisdiction. The case probably will extend over two weeks.

OPENS TUESDAY

Hearing of argument is scheduled to open here on Tuesday morning next, with an eminent array of counsel present armed with voluminous briefs. The Dominion Government and at least five of the provinces, Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia will be represented.

The whole matter is an outgrowth of the Provincial Premiers' conference held at Ottawa in November last. At this conference Premier G. Howard Ferguson of Ontario, and Premier L. A. Taschereau of Quebec, particularly questioned the right of the Dominion to water powers created or made available by the erection of Dominion works for the improvement of navigation. The provincial representatives further asserted a right on the part of the provinces to such powers within the limits of the Province. The discussion resulted in a decision to refer the question of legislative control over the proprietary interest in water powers to the Supreme Court of Canada.

B.C. REPRESENTED

Waterpowers incidental to navigation is the main issue, with the authority of the Dominion over navigation also involved. In brief, the contention of the Dominion Government would be that when powers are developed from works which it constructs to aid navigation, the Dominion owns such surplus powers.

Ontario and Quebec through counsel will take the leading part in opposition, and will be supported by British Columbia.

Manitoba and Saskatchewan probably also will be heard in argument in answer to the claim of the Dominion.

These province, broadly speaking, will contend that the water powers were vested in the provinces before Confederation, and were not transferred to Dominion domain by it, through the British North America Act.

A further argument will be put forward by the provinces that the Dominion has no right to these waterpowers, and that any treaty respecting an international waterway must subordinate the B.N.A.

AID FOR STORM VICTIMS

Ottawa, Sept. 27—Hon. Ernest Lapointe, acting Prime Minister, announced this morning that the Government of Canada is subscribing $25,000 to the British West Indies hurricane relief committee. Mr. Lapointe stated that the step was taken after consultation with, and upon the recommendation of the Canadian Red Cross.

GRANBY COMPANY MOVES ON POWER SUPPLY ACTION

Argument Involving West Kootenay Light and Power Co. Set For Vancouver

Argument on an application for an order nisi on a writ of mandamus compelling the West Kootenay Light and Power Company to continue the supply of electricity to the Granby Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company at Allenby, was renewed before Mr. Justice Murphy in Supreme Court Chambers to-day.

C. H. Locke, K.C., made the application on the point that had originally been reserved for argument at the trial. A. H. MacNeill, K.C., entered the objection that his clients were unprepared to argue the matter on short notice and asked an adjournment.

STOOD OVER A WEEK

Mr. Justice Murphy explained that he had originally adjourned argument on the issue until the trial itself, but had been asked later for leave to speak to the order in advance of the appeal from his ruling that the West Kootenay company could not legally grant the supply asked. The application was stood over for argument at Vancouver next Thursday, when Mr. Locke will reopen the subject.

The Granby Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company and the West Kootenay Light and Power Company are in litigation over the question of electrical supply at Allenby. The issue has been before the courts for some time, and also before the Provincial Water Board.

COLD STORAGE TENDERS TO BE CALLED SOON

H. G. Brown of Montreal Returns With Plans For $550,000 Plant

Plans and specifications for a modern steel and concrete cold storage plant, to be built here at an estimated total cost of $550,000, are complete and tenders will be called shortly for the work, H. G. Brown of Montreal announced to The Times to-day on his arrival in this city.

Work has already started at the Ogden Point site, leased from the federal authorities Mr. Brown stated, and is being done by the Victoria Cold Storage and Terminal Warehouse Company itself. Tenders for the main construction and equipment contracts will be called soon, and when the contracts are awarded there will be no delay in pushing the building and its equipment to completion, Mr. Brown added.

FORESEE SUCCESS

In association with Mr. Brown, who was here a year ago in the early negotiations with the city for a guarantee for the venture, is the Municipal Debenture Corporation of Quebec. Mr. Brown says his backers are fully alive to the opportunities here for a modern cold storage plant, and are determined to make a success of the Victoria venture.

City backing in the undertaking is limited to a guarantee of profits for the first ten years, at a rate not to exceed $35,000 per annum. Any profits made by the company in the operation of the plant would be deducted from the amount of the city's liability during that period. Fixed taxation and industrial water rates are also extended by the city to the company.

Mr. Brown spent the morning going over the site of the projected building, and in meeting his business associates here. He is registered at the Empress Hotel.

Elimination Of Tariff On U. S. Importations Is Sought By B. C. Collieries

Retaliation to Canadian Impost by United States Would Endanger Markets for British Columbia Bituminous Coal, Crow's Nest Company Claims; British Columbia Miners' Association Seeks Tariff Reduction on Material Used in Production.

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—The tariff advisory board this morning granted an adjournment of the hearing of the British Empire Steel Corporation's application for an import duty on coke and coal used by them. E. J. Long, for the company, explained that certain developments had made necessary slight revision of the company's latest reference.

Objection to an adjournment was made by A. E. Darby for the Canadian Council of Agriculture and representatives of the British Columbia Miners' Association.

CASE PROLONGED

Mr. Darby said that the case already had been carried along nearly two years and that there appeared to be no justification for repeated adjournments. The miners' representatives opposed the request on the ground the further adjournment would preclude their attendance.

Chairman W. H. Moore said that the board as a fact-finding body was prepared to meet the convenience of the applicants whenever possible. It was very desirable to put on the records for Parliament complete and connected evidence relative to the various submissions, and "we want to be fair to all concerned, but we can not refuse an adournment under circumstances where the interested parties are not prepared to proceed."

NO DEFINITE DATE

While no define date was set for the resumed hearing, Mr. Long intimated that he probably would be ready within a month or six weeks.

The board then directed that the reference of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company be read into the records.

This submission, presented by J. F. Edgar, counsel for the appellants, ask for the removal of the present duty of fifty cents a ton on bituminous coal, the retention of coke on the free list, and seeks abolition of certain industrial drawbacks.

The coal company is supported in its application by the British Columbia Miners' Association of Fernie, B.C.

Prior to the United States Tariff Act of 1922, Mr. Edgar said, the company had been more or less indifferent in regard to the customs duties on coal entering Canada as the company had enjoyed free access to the markets of the United States, notwithstanding a Canadian duty on United States coal.

"The duty imposed by Canada did not then affect the rate imposed by the United States," Mr. Edgar stated. "Now, however, the United States has declared that if any country imposes a tariff on coal or its by-products when imported from the United States an equal duty shall be imposed upon such articles coming into the United States from such country.

"In view of this attitude of the United States which is not an unreasonable one, we propose to urge upon the government the desirability of entirely removing the duty on bituminous coal and slack, and of retaining coke on the free list."

Mr. Lisgar submitted that in British Columbia there was an actual reserve of approximately 23,000,000,000 tons of bituminous coal compared with about 7,000,000,000 in Nova Scotia and Alberta.

The coal to be considered, he said, was that actually in reserve and waiting to be mined.

Mr. Edgar said that there were many factors entering into the price of coal in various parts of Canada and the United States, but distance from the mine to consumer had a definite and very important bearing.

COMPETITION

"While there is in the Crow's Nest district this large deposit of high-grade coal and compartively little in the western states across the border, it does not follow that we are entirely free from competition and that the people of these states must buy our coal in spite of the duty," Mr. Lisgar observed.

Figures were introduced to show that following the imposition of the Fordney tariff, exports of bituminous coal from the Crow's Nest Pass field had dropped sharply.

"We think we can safetly assume that the consumers are in favor of the removal of a tax which adds fifty cents a ton to the price of all imported bituminous coal. A tax on the source of power seems inconsistent with the spirit of our tariff, which, as far as possible, admits free material and implements used in the production of wealth," Mr. Lisgar added.

In supporting the application, the British Columbia Miners Association asks that a reciprocal arrangement be entered into between the governments of Canada and the United States for a reduction of the present tariff on all material used in the production of coal and that implements not manufactured in Canada be allowed to enter Canada free of duty. The downward readjustment of freight rates from all coal mining areas to all central points in Canada and removal of the sales tax is also urged.

DUNCAN BOARD IS NEUTRAL ON FLUME PROJECT

Cowichan Organization Decides to Take no Action on Log Scheme

(Special to The Times)

Duncan, Sept. 27—After going exhaustively into plans for the construction of a giant flume to carry logs from Cowichan Lake to tidewater at Cowichan Bay, the Duncan Board of Trade decided at a meeting here last night to take a strictly neutral stand on the project.

This decision followed several weeks of consideration by the board on the merits of the scheme. One faction in the organization opposed the flume on the ground that it would adversely affect the fish run to the Cowichan River, while another group insisted that it would do no damage and would be of enormous economic value to the whole Cowichant district.

BOARDS AGREE

At a recent conference in Duncan representatives of the syndicate promoting the flume explained their plans in detail and answered objections to them. Representatives of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce attended this meeting and, after hearing their report, the organization decided to take no action on the flume one way or the other. The Duncan board has adopted the same attitude.

SAFECRACKERS IN VANCOUVER TAKE NOTHING BUT DRUGS

Vancouver, Sept. 27—Safecrackers in the city hung the third scalp to their belts within four days when on Wednesday night they opened the strong box at the offices of the National Drug Company, Beatty Street. The latest "crack" satisfies the police that at least some of the members of the gangs are drug addicts, a quantity of drugs being taken from the premises last entered.

No cash was in the safe.

DRAG BEACH TO LOCATE BODY

Seattle Police Suspect Man Was Murdered For His Automobile

Seattle, Sept. 27 — Two sheriff's deputies were this morning dragging the waters off Richmond Beach in an effort to locate the body of James Bassett, believed to have been murdered for his automobile, after a fresh theory was introduced into the mystery by W. H. Browas, a criminal investigator, employed by Sherrif Claud Bannick. Browas believes Bassett's body will be found in the Sound near a spot pointed out last night by E. H. Hanson of Edmonds.

Hanson told Chief of Detectives Charles Tennant that on the night of September 2 he had seen a man acting suspiciously in a small boat near the beach, which is about three miles from the "little brown house" at Richmond Tracts, where it is almost certain D. E. Mayer and his mother, Mrs. Mary French, lived while negotiating with Bassett for the purchase of his automobile.

Hanson said he noticed the man he believed now was Mayer taking soundings with a piece of heavy wire. Police think the man was striving to find the deepest place on the beach as a possible grave for the body of Bassett.

RADIO SERVICE TO RIVAL TELEGRAPH NOW PLANNED

New York, Sept. 27.—The International Telephone and Telegraph Company contemplates the establishment of a nation-wide commercial radio service, which, for the first time, would put the radiogram on a footing with the telegram, it was learned yesterday.

An application by the MacKay Radio and Telegraph Company, an I. T. & T. subsidiary, has been placed before the Federal Radio Commission for the allocation of sixty point-to-point channels for short wave communication. The company already operates three radio stations—in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Portland, Ore.—which constitute the only point-to-point commercial radio service now operating in competition with land lines.

Giant Elevator Is Concrete Monster Ready To Digest 600 Cars Of Prairie Grain

City Aldermen Peer Down From Towering Warehouse to Watch Pigmy Figures Toiling on Wharves Below; View Machinery Which Cleans Grain and Pours It Into Ships' Holds at Rate of 42,000 Bushels an Hour; Plant Is Model of Speed and Efficiency

With a shipping gallery of less than fifty feet, and rail and deep water alongside, Victoria's first million-bushel grain elevator will be one of the most easily-operated on the Pacific Coast, city officials learned yesterday on a tour of inspection of the Ogden Point plant of the Panama Pacific Grain Terminals Limited.

While some of the Mainland storage houses have shipping galleries of 300 feet in length, the Victoria elevator can pass grain from its shipping room to the hold of a boat by the shortest possible route. Triple tracks pass to the receiving shed from the C.N.R. lines and will be fed by car ferry from Port Mann. The elevator has a capacity for 600 carloads of grain, and can fill a 3,000-ton vessel in eight hours.

Aldermen John Harvey, R. A. C. Dewar, J. B. Clearihue, James Adam, William Marchant, H. O. Litchfield and John Worthington were in the City Council party shown over the premises yesterday, accompanied by M. Kirkpatrick-Crockett, John Baxter, D. A. Macdonald, M. F. Hunter and a Times representative. Lieut.-Col. G. M. Colman, formerly of London, England, but now resident in this city, made the 200 foot climb with the party to the top floor and arrived fresher at the top, despite his seventy-three years, than some members of the council. A. L. H. Somerville, representing C. D. Howe & Company, city advisory engineers, conducted the tour.

FOLLOWING THE GRAIN

The party followed the route that will be taken by grain from the time it is received in the track shed for dumping into the receiving hoppers, until processed and dried, it is stored for passage to the hold, of outbound steamers for world ports. Something of the wizardry of modern machinery enters into that route, the grain untouched by hand being nursed along by belt, hopper and spout until it has made a complete round of the building which with its twenty-two concrete storage bins and workhouse, stands 217 feet high.

The receiving shed with its triple tracks beside the workhouse, can unload eight cars an hour. The grain is automatically dumped into receiving pits, spilled upon bucket-belts and carried aloft through the receiving "legs." The grain passes through five processes on the way, receiving two air siftings and three cleanings. Separators and air blasts get in their work, the former abstracting particles foreign to the wheat, and the air blasts removing the dust through "cyclones."

If the grain is tough when received it is passed to the driers, where it is cascaded from the top to the bottom of the workhouse, through aerated buckets and subject by fifteen-minute stages to graduated heats up to 150 Fah. Then it is cooled and passed to the distributing system, where automatic dumpers scrape conveyors and turn the grain into storage bins.

Chains of scoops and belts again come into play in the shipping, when the grain is lifted and passed to the shipping spouts. The main shipping spout can load 42,000 bushels an hour, while four smaller spouts can be placed in operation for smaller loadings. The spouts, inside and outside the building, are swivelled and can be placed in any position, to facilitate loading by all hatches in a vessel.

WATCHED AND WEIGHED

And everywhere the grain moves it is watched, tested and weighed. It is weighed in and weighed out. Weighed before drying and after. The volume of the grain changes with its state, and a careful check is kept on its quantity and conditions at all times. Grain passing into the hold of a vessel is weighed by its absence, on the weigh-back principle, the amount of shortage being taken from the grain still on the scales, giving the weight of the grain sent into a hold.

The elevator is equipped with the latest devices in spout locks, by means of which the entire process of spouting can be checked by Dominion grain inspector, who will hold the keys. This prevents any fear of diversion inside the elevator after the grain has been weighed to go out. A locked route sends the grain to the ship, and only the Dominion grain inspector can change the route. Meanwhile indicators and scales play their part, and an exact check is possible at all times.

The aldermanic party climbed yesterday to the roof of the workhouse, where 217 feet below could be seen pigmy figures busy at the decking of the receiving pits. From this height a unique view of the harbor front is obtained, with a birdseye view of the elevator plant itself, in an ideal location between track and water.

ELECTRICALLY DRIVEN

Concrete and steel, the workhouse rises tier by tier until even the twenty-two grain storage bins are dwarfed into insignificance far below. Electricity, the unseen silent servant of man, is the moving agent for the great mass of machinery. It turns belts, raises chain buckets, operates dumpers, fans, cyclones for dusting, heat for drying, and power for the moving of the grain from place to place.

Massed weight is a consideration watched at every turn. Under the load of full bins, the elevator foundation is expected to settle a little more deeply on its piles. The probable movement is computed and anticipated, and preparations made mark the new and permanent level of the foundation work when this point is reached. That movement will be expected and regular. Any further settling would be at once the cause for alarm.

Though the party walked up 300 steps to the top of the building, Aldermen Harvey, Dewar and Clearihue had the honor of testing out the passenger elevator on the way down, making the first ride in that conveyance. They were followed by the remaining members of the party.

READY FOR GRAIN

Last-minute adjustments to machinery is taking place this week, together with incidental decking of pits and other final touches. Soon the elevator will be ready to throw open its doors for grain, over 1,000,000 bushels of which it can store at one time. When in operation the elevator will employ twenty men, most of them experts in their line. James Burden, formerly of the Alberta Pacific elevator at Vancouver, will be the superintendent.

The elevator was built by Smith Bros. & Wilson, Vancouver, on plans made by Metcalfe & Company, famous Canadian designers. A. L. H. Somerville, for C. D. Howe & Company, supervised the work for the city and is completing his task on his third elevator. A Vancouverite, Mr. Somerville has fallen in love with Victoria, and during his stay here has made warm friends.

To engineers and technicians the elevator presents an interesting example of the spread of modern knowledge in grain building. To the layman the Panama Pacific grain storage house is an overtowering building, filled with complicated machinery, but which nevertheless presents a stern and workmanlike aspect at every turn. Here, one feels, is a giant, controlled by a button, but with amazing strength and endurance.

From prairie fields to the quayside of world ports will be the ultimate story of the grain to pass through Victoria, with London, Melbourne, Yokohama and other great cities showing on the register of vessels making the connection.

Hoover Charges Vigorously Denied

Washington, Sept. 27—A vigorous denial that Herbert Hoover, as wartime food administrator fixed maximum prices for farm products was contained in a pamphlet issued yesterday by the Republican National committee. Such charges was declared to have been wilfully or ignorantly made.

Further, it was asserted that Hoover's record reveals a "consistent friendship for the farmer" and that he did "his utmost to protect and secure fair and generous dealing to the wheat growers, hog producers and other farmers of the country, for their war-time efforts.

Son of Coolidge In Auto Crash

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 27.—Two persons were injured this morning in a collision of automobiles, one driven by Governor John H. Trumbull's personal chauffer and having John Coolidge, son of President Coolidge, as a passenger, and the other driven by Wilfred Veno, who had his mother, Mrs. Mary Veno, with him. The Venos are in the hospital, Mrs. Veno with lacerations about the face and bruises on the body, and her son with a possible skull fracture.

Coolidge and the chauffeur were unhurt.

CAIRN STANDS ON SIMPSON'S ANCIENT TRAIL

Skirl o' Pipes Echoes Again in Rockies After Two Centuries at Unveiling

Invermere, Sept. 27—A representative gathering turned out to witness the ceremonies of unveiling the memorial tablet to the honor of the achievements of Sir George Simpson, who, in 1841, during his famous journey overland round the world, was the first white man to go by trail over this part of the Province of British Columbia.

It was fitting that the present governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, Governor Sale, should unveil the bronze tablet on the cairn, which is situated at the fork on the Banff-Windermere motor road, where the old trail over the Simpson Pass at the junction of the Simpson and Vermilion Rivers takes place.

PIPES HEARD AGAIN

Sir George Simpson always had the prestige of the British Empire at heart and wherever he journeyed he was always accompanied by his body-servant, who was invariably a Scotsman, and a piper. So, to the "skirl o' the pipes," which the grim mountains had not heard in nearly two centuries, the governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, together with the notables gathered together for this occasion, were piped to their places on the platform of honor.

Howard Sibbald, the park superintendent, was chairman, introducing the different speakers. The first one called upon was His Honor R. Randolph Bruce, the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, who gave the reasons for the gathering. Governor Sale was then asked to speak and paid a glowing tribute to the achievements of Sir George Simpson, as well as to all the men of the Hudson's Bay Company.

BRINGS GREETINGS

Thompson C. Elliott of Walla Walla, Washington, spoke, bringing the greetings of the Oregon and Washington Historical Society to the company, for in the days of Sir George Simpson, both Oregon and Washington were under the jurisdiction of the Hudson's Bay Company. Judge Howay was the last speaker, giving the historical sketch of Sir George Simpson and his times.

Mr. Sibbald then invited everyone to go down the trail to the junction of the rivers, where there was a large tent and a huge campfire with great pots of steaming tea and coffee and ample refreshments of sandwiches and doughnuts. All were glad of the warmth, as the wind had blown up cold from the lofty peaks towering over Simpson's Pass.

VISIT MINE

Here greetings between friends and a social chat was enjoyed and the company dispersed, some to Banff and other to Windermere. Governor Sale, with George Allan, Dr. Longstaff and Thompson Elliott, accompanied His Honor and Miss Mackenzie as their guests at the Lieutenant-Governor's home, "Pynlogs," on Lake Windermere.

Later the visitors were taken up to the Paradise Mine on Mount Nelson and were the guests of the board of trade at a banquet given in their honor at the Hotel Invermere.

Men in Peace River Crash Held Up By Smoke Haze

Ottawa, Sept. 27.—Unless flying conditions improve, Wing Commanders J. L. Gordon and L. S. Breadner will proceed to the air base at Ladner Lake, Saskatchewan, by train from Edmonton, the Department of National Defence announces. It was at first hoped that they would be able to fly from Peace River to continue their inspection of Government air bases, but smoke haze still renders aviation hazardous in that district. Whether it will be possible to reach Cormorant Lake by air on their return trip is uncertain, officials state.

Squadron Leader A. E. Godfrey and Sergt. Graham are remaining at Carcajou in an attempt to salvage the engine and instruments of their plane which crashed in a forced landing on the Peace River.

Plenty of provisions were left by the launch which brought Gordon and Breadner to Peace River, and officials believe that it may be a week before they return.

Members of the court of inquiry which will investigate the crash have not been named, G. J. Desbarats, Deputy Minister of National Defence, stated to-day. It is expected that the inquiry will be made in Ottawa when all the officers return.

One Man Killed And Three Hurt in Mine

Timmins, Ont., Sept. 27—One man, Duncan McLeod, was killed and three others injured in an explosion in the Hollinger mine yesterday. The men were included in a party of ten operating drills in the deepening of what is known as the Schumacher drift.

Ontario Tobacco Damage $500,000

Chatham, Ont., Sept. 27—A conservative estimate of the damage suffered by Essex County tobacco growers from the frost of the last few nights places the amount at $500,000. All tobacco that had not been harvested was ruined. Growers of tomatoes have been hard hit by the unexpected and unseasonable temperature.

Erickson Brings Facts On Mine Developments

B. O. Erickson, pioneer prospector of the North, arrived in Victoria today from Stewart, B.C., with the latest detailed news of developments on properties there in which Victoria and Vancouver investors are interested.

He brought down samples of ore from the high-grade gold strike on the Big Missouri and also samples of the 3,000-ounce silver-copper ore from Pat Daly's Mountain Boy.

Mr. Erickson summarized developments as follows:

"On Big Missouri (Mas Consolidated) at a distance of 1,600 feet in the tunnel, and at a vertical depth of 650 feet, opened up the gold ore which, when it went to Trail, was shown by assay to run $1,200 to the ton. They have now gone in for a distance of 190 feet on this gold vein. The ore is primary ore.

"On the George Copper the latest diamond drill hole, driving downwards, has cut the ore body at a depth of 1,000 feet. This ore body is one hundred feet wide and beyond smaller veins of copper are still encountered.

UP TEXAS CREEK

"Up Texas Creek there is a rush of stakers and engineers as a result of the discovery of float which went $12,000 to the ton. The United States Government has decided to spend $400,000 in building a road through Texas Creek and beyond.

"At Silverado, the Premier is building the camp, the electricity is in and they are starting a 1,000-foot tunnel.

"At Porter-Idaho and Prosperity work is being pushed ahead, and it is expected that the tram will be running within forty days.

"On Georgia River, all the preliminary work has been done and Winter development is now being undertaken.

"A revival is planned at the Dunwell, with a doodle-bug radiore finder, brought out from Ontario, now being set at work to discover ore on the property.

"At the Independence, the Revenue people have gone through three large ore bodies with their diamond drills.

"On the Dalhousie, surface prospecting is being carried out with good results reported.

ORE FOR SHIPMENT

"Mountain Boy has attracted much attention with its spectacular showings. Pat Daly is staying on the property himself and they are sacking $500 to $1,000 ore for shipment. The camp is completed and they plan to work all Winter. On this property they have also found a large deposit of silver-copper ore going as high as 3,000 ounces of silver, the first ore of that nature found in British Columbia.

"On the Red Top they are driving an upper tunnel to intersect the silver-lead showings at a depth of 200 feet, which place they are due to reach within two weeks. They plan to work all winter.

"George Enterprise has got very heavy ore in both camps.

"At the Bear Valley mines, surface prospecting has been carried on, with the big copper zone, the continuation of the George Copper ore body, marked out.

"At the Radio surface prospecting has exposed copper-gold-silver and silver-lead-zinc veins.

STRIPPING VEINS

"At the Stewart Central, besides the surface prospecting, the gold-copper-silver vein has been stripped from 1,000 feet and stripping is now proceeding on two more veins.

"The Mayou is organized, forty tons of supplies have been shipped in and it is planned to work all Winter. Promising copper veins have been opened and cuts have exposed veins for 2,000 feet.

"Other properties on Bitter Creek have been doing surface prospecting and some are bringing down shipping ore.

"For the L.L. and H. at the head of Bitter Creek, a deal has been closed. The tunnels there show ore up to forty feet in width.

"Silver Tip has opened heavy mineralization in the quartz porphry form, and is driving a tunnel to cut the May P.J. vein at depth. Results similar to those on the Big Missouri are being developed here.

"Outland Silver Bar is showing up a very large ore body in underground development with a 2,000-foot tunnel.

"The Sunrise Group on August Mountain has brought in high grade in the mineralized quartz-porphry."

BIG BUSINESS NOW VITAL FOR BRITAIN, SAYS LORD MELCHETT

Former Sir Alfred Mond Has No Fear of Government Operation Danger

New York, Sept. 27—Mergers and big business are vital for Britain if industry there is to prosper, according to the former Sir Alfred Mond, now known as Lord Melchett, who arrived here on the Homeric on his way to the nickel fields of Northern Ontario.

Lord Melchett was asked if mergers and consolidations of industries in England did not lead to much suffering of those affected and if the reaction would not be a drift toward Marxism.

"I do not think so," he said. "Labor is no more interested in placing our industries under government operation than the business men who operate them wish it. On this point English labor and employer are in accord.

"It is true that there are hardships in the transference of employees from one field to another, but new industries and new methods absorb them. We have not been able to absorb all the unemployed into our industrial scheme, but I can't think proportionately we have any more unemployed in England than you have in the United States.

MORE MEN AT WORK NOW

"Since 1924 we have put 2,000,000 more men and women into production than was the case before 1914, and at the present time we have not more than 1,250,000 unemployed and when we say unemployed we mean who are out of work from time to time but not necessarily all the time.

"Your immigration laws have worked against us in this respect; and we hope that a time will come when you will welcome again a free inflow of English immigration. This is one of the ways in which England once met its surplus labor problems."

Commenting on mergers and consolidations, Lord Melchett said that his programme would eliminate the "unfit." Lord Melchett was optimistic concerning the prospects of the Ontario nickel properties and declared "consumption is getting along fast and we shall have to extend our operations both in Canada and England."

NEW SENSATION IN BOOHER TRIAL

Dramatic Moment When Salvationist Refuses to Give "Confession" Evidence

Edmonton, Sept. 27.—Although the trial of Vernon Booher, for the quadruple murders at Mannville on July 9, already has been probably the most sensational ever held in Alberta, the greatest dramatic moment was reached to-day when Adjutant Stewart of the Salvation Army for whose absence in the morning the trial was adjourned, refused to divulge confessions made to him by the accused, although he had been ordered to do so by Chief Justice Simmons.

"Judas betrayed his Master, and if I betray this boy, I will also betray my Master," Stewart declared.

In the moment of suspense that followed, Vernon Booher summoned Neil D. McLean, K.C., his counsel. A few whispered words passed, and then Mr. McLean walked to the bar.

"My Lord the accused desires Adjutant Stewart to give the required evidence."

Booher, who was half standing in the dock with flushed face, turned a deadly pallor and sank back into his seat.

A buzz of exclamations ran around the court, but was silenced by the sheriff and orderlies.

Briefly and clearly, Adjutant Stewart told of what passed between himself and accused.

"I visited Vernon Booher at Fort Saskatchewan in the capacity of a spiritual adviser. I told him that no matter what the courts of this world might decide as to his innocence or guilt, he should still have his God to meet.

"You have read what the papers have said about the deed?" Booher asked me. I replied that I had.

"Looking straight into my eyes, he asked: 'Do you think God can forgive me for my deed?'

"I replied that any sinner will be forgiven if he truly repents."

"What was the deed?" demanded Crown Prosecutor Cogswell.

"He did not explain further."

BELIEVES HE MEANT MURDERS

"But he gave you to believe and you understood that it was the Mannville murders?"

"That is what I believed."

Adjutant Stewart testified that he had visited Booher several times in August and on September 17. During these visits Booher told the adjutant that he had no memory of his deed, that his mind was a complete blank. He said his dreams of those dead was always of the most pleasant. When asked if he had been subject to any physical trouble, such as sickness, rush of blood to the head, or loss of memory, Booher said that he had only suffered a rush of blood to the head the time he was kicked by a horse.

KITSILANO INDIAN RESERVE TITLE IN HANDS OF OTTAWA

Vancouver, Sept. 27. — Complete title to the Kitsilano Indian Reserve is in the hands of the Federal Government. It was revealed as a result of the visit of the civic delegation to Victoria to interview the cabinet on Wednesday. This means that the city will have to negotiate only with the Federal Government if it wishes to obtain a lease of the property with the option to purchase.

The purpose of the delegation was to urge the Provincial Government to give a quit-claim of its interest in the reserve to the federal government in order to facilitate acquisition by the city. It was also asked that the Provincial Government agree to wait for payment of its $350,000 interest in the reserve until the option is taken up by the city.

HIT AND RUN

Calgary, Sept. 27.—Herman Pracker, Strathmore farmer, was killed here last night when struck by an alleged hit and run driver.

INSURANCE ACT SECTION VALID

Company Liable Under B.C. Statute, Supreme Court Judge Rules

Vancouver, Sept. 27.—Following an attack by the Preferred Accident Insurance Company of New York on the validity of Section 24 of the Insurance Act, as enacted by the legislature in 1925, Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald in supreme court to-day held that the section in question is intra vires.

The company, in answer to a claim of Stanley Erickson, Eton St., had pleaded that Section 24 of the Insurance Act was ultra vires on the ground that it dealt with regulations of Trade and Commerce in contravention of Section 91 of the British North America Act. The additional reason advanced off this plea was that the enactment purported to attach a liability or obligation on a corporation having a license from the Dominion of Canada to transact business within the province of British Columbia and thus contravened Section 92 of the B.N.A. Act.

INTRODUCED LEGISLATION

Hon. R. L. Maitland, K.C., appeared for the plaintiff in support of the validity of the section, which had introduced in this province for the first time the important legislation of rendering insurance companies liable for damages awarded against the insured party. Nearly a year ago Stanley, suing by his father, Axel Erickson, was awarded judgment against his brother, Erick, in the sum of $2,755 for injuries sustained in an automobile accident. When execution process failed to recover the award from the defendant, recourse was sought against the Preferred Accident Insurance Company of New York, which had insured Eric for $5,000 against just such accident.

ACCEPT OPINION

Among other defences, the company contended that the section of the insurance act, which gave Stanley a right to sure, was ultra vires.

Mr. Maitland explained that he had prepared an argument on this issue, which Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald had set down for hearing before the trial; but that just prior to coming into court he was notified by defendant's solicitors that they had abandoned their attack on Section 24. The defence lawyers stated that they accepted the opinion of Mr. J. W. deB. Farris, K.C., who was their counsel, that the enactment in question is intra vires.

Mr. Justice Macdonald pronounced the section intro vires and awarded plaintiff costs of the issue.

The trial has been adjourned to a date to be fixed, when other defenses, including one that it was a collusion action between the brothers, will be heard.

FEDERAL AID TO WESTERN ROADS

Necessity For Continued Help Emphasized at Dominion Convention at Regina

Regina, Sept. 27.—No pronouncement was forthcoming on the question of a transcanada highway by the delegates at the Canadian Good Roads convention following its re-affirmation last night to the policy of continued federal aid to the different provinces of Canada for commercial highways.

It was expected that the presentation this morning to the convention of the views of Hon. P. C. Black, immediate past president of the association on the responsibility of the Dominion Government in regard to provincial highways with special reference to further federal aid would have brought some expression of opinion by resolution on the transcanada highway problem but the general view appeared to be to not move at the present time in that direction.

TO HELP AGRICULTURE

Mr. Black's views, owing to his absence from the convention were presented by proxy and emphasized the necessity of continued federal aid, especially in the western provinces in order to assist in the development of agriculture.

From the new president, Hon. O. L. McPherson, Alberta, came the only contribution to the discussion on the question and he expressed himself as finding little difficulty in harmonizing adherence to the principle of federal aid.

THE TARIFF ON COAL

TWO VIEWS WITH RESPECT TO THE tariff on imported bituminous coal from the United States have been placed before the Tariff Advisory Board at Ottawa. The Nova Scotia Government has asked that the present tariff of fifty cents per ton be increased. The Crows Nest Pass Coal Company has asked that this duty be removed altogether.

The British Columbia Government already has appointed counsel at Ottawa to oppose the application of the Nova Scotia Government. It has taken this stand because any increase in the present duty merely would invite retaliatory measures against Canadian coal. This would be a serious threat to the coal mining industry of British Columbia. The Cabinet now, of course, will have to decide whether it proposes to allow its case to rest on the objection to Nova Scotia's application, or whether it will support the application of the Crows Nest Pass Coal Company. To be consistent, it would seem that its support should be given to the British Columbia concern. It is the second largest coal company in the province and it gives employment to a large number of men. The removal of the duty on coal imported most surely would result in a similarly accommodating measure by the United States authorities. If it did not think such a course would improve business on this side, the B. C. company would not have made its request.

It should be noted that prior to 1922 there was no duty on soft coal entering the States, but in that year a clause was inserted in the Fordney Tariff Act providing for a duty equal to that imposed by any other country upon coal from the United States. As Canada admitted coke and anthracite free and imposed fifty cents per ton on bituminous coal, the effect was the automatic imposition of fifty cents a ton on Canadian soft coal entering the States. The case of the Maritimes is slightly different. In 1923, as a means of assisting the coal production in these provinces, the duty on slack coal was raised from thirteen cents to fifty cents per ton.

As The Toronto Globe points out, the Crows Nest Pass Company, on its face, makes out a fair argument for the removal of the duty. And it will be understood that Canada's chief coal deposits are in the extreme west and east. Those of the United States are in the centre. If Canadian coal had free entry to the United States, says Mr. J. F. Edgar, who prepared the brief, the market for British Columbia coal in the neighboring States would be greatly extended. Even a 50-cent duty, he says, is a determining factor in selling coal, and means success or failure in a considerable area.

It would be interesting to know in the meantime what Mr. Bennett thinks of the British Columbia Government's opposition to the application from Nova Scotia. He recently has conducted an intensive speaking tour of the Maritime Provinces and lost no opportunity of preaching the gospel of high protection. But he now is reported to be on his way to British Columbia where a Conservative Government has thrown its protection policy overboard as far as coal is concerned. The discussion between himself and Dr. Tolmie on this subject should be interesting.

MR. STEVENS AND IMMIGRATION

IN AN INTERVIEW IN A RECENT ISsue of The Toronto Mail and Empire, Hon. H. H. Stevens, Conservative member in the House of Commons for Vancouver Centre, gives his opinions on the subject of immigration. In the main he has reached the conclusion that this country has been giving too much artificial aid to induce settlers to come here. The Vancouver member says in part:

> I believe the best policy is that which will allow and encourage voluntary immigration, and I believe with such a policy we would find the numbers coming to the country far in excess of anything which has been seen. The best immigrant is the man who wants to come, the man who comes seeking a home, and the more artificial aids and directions that control the source of that immigration, the more trouble you are going to get yourself into.

The point about this statement from Mr. Stevens which critics of the Government should note is that he can have reference only to prospective settlers from the British Isles, since only to British migrants is any artificial aid given; the Continental European immigrant comes because he wants to come and pays his own way. He costs the country by way of propaganda—and that applies only to Hollanders—eleven cents. For every settler Canada draws from the British Isles the taxpayers of this Dominion pay $16.67.

We are of the opinion that in the long run the policy which Mr. Stevens so obviously supports would be the best and result in a greater movement of people to this country. But what would some of the Vancouver member's political friends say if the Dominion Government were to give his plan a trial? However, if Mr. Stevens desires to give the benefit of his judgment to Parliament next session, we shall consider him courageous and watch with more than ordinary interest for the reaction of the Opposition in general and that of Mr. Bennett in particular.

If the Vancouver member, incidentally, has not yet heard from Bishop Lloyd of Saskatchewan on this subject, he may expect his knuckles to be rapped before long. The latest ebullition from this well-known divine varies only slightly from those which have gone before, except that he is a little more specific. He says that "there has been, and is to-day, a deliberate attempt to keep the British out of Canada." He declares that "in England I have been repeatedly told that repressive measures have been used and the 'funnel' choked on this side." He had asked who blocked the funnel, and the reply was: "The Canadian High Commissioner in London is opposed to emigration from Britain to Canada."

It would appear to be time to ask Bishop Lloyd who told him that "repressive measures" have been taken and that "the Canadian High Commissioner in London is opposed to emigration from Britain to Canada." He has made serious charges against Canadians who have served their country well; he should substantiate them up to the hilt or remain silent on a subject in respect of which there is a suspicion that an unexplained prejudice has got the better of his judgment. The political flavor of his strictures, by the way, rather detract from the dignity usually associated with the cloth, while the manifest absurdity of some of them must detract from the public's measure of his intelligence.

HIP-POCKET POLITICS

THE VOTERS OF THE UNITED STATES must be getting some amusement out of the presidential campaign. The latest touch of humor has been supplied by Senator Bruce of Maryland and Senator Curtis, the Republican vice-presidential nominee. Senator Bruce, a Democrat, has repeated a statement he made the other day to the effect that he had been told by one James A. McGrath of Baltimore that he (McGrath) had been offered a drink of whisky by Senator Curtis at the Pimlico racetrack at Baltimore last year. Senator Curtis comes back with this: "I dislike to say anything harsh about a man, but if this McGrath issued that statement about me, he is a wilful, malicious and deliberate liar."

We may never know whether Senator Curtis did the deed of which Mr. McGrath charges him. The people of one of the richest and most populous countries in the world may not care a rap if Senator Curtis did endeavor to dispense hospitality from the contents of a vessel which Senator Bruce understood was concealed in the hip-pocket of the vice-presidential candidate. But the point which the incident emphasizes is the nature of the tactics, not only in the United States, but in most other countries, which political heat will engender. This is one reason why many men who would like to, and could, serve their countries efficiently keep out of public life.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

UGLY SIGNBOARDS

The Vancouver Province

Montreal is taking steps to abolish unsightly signboards. Good for Montreal! Signboards that cry out to heaven in their ugliness have been tolerated too long. It is a curious thing about the human being that while he will rise in his wrath and insist upon the banishment of those nuisances that offend against his sense of hearing or his sense of smell, he will go on, month after month, allowing his eyes to be seared by clashing colors or by objects hideous in shape and in incongruous setting without even breathing a complaint. The action of the Montreal city council suggests that a change is coming. It is a healthy sign.

For oats the area sown is estimated at 13,237,000 acres, as compared with 13,239,963 acres in 1927, showing little change. Barley sown is estimated at 3,625,500 acres, as compared with 3,505,713 acres in 1927, an increase of 119,787 acres of 3 per cent. The area sown to rye is placed at 689,800 acres, as compared with 743,311 acres, a decrease of 53,511 acres or 7 per cent. THE GRANARY OF THE EMPIRE

The Toronto Telegram

According to the Bureau of Statistics, Canada is harvesting the largest wheat crop in her history.

Canada is living up to her reputation as the granary of the Empire.

And those British miners who helped with that harvest will at least be able to tell the folks over home that they saw the greatest wheat fields in the world.

OBSERVING THE SABBATH

The Farmers' Sun (Toronto)

It is reported that the Lord's Day Alliance is endeavoring to bring action against a Seventh Day Adventist farmer of Derby Township, in Grey County, because he observes Saturday as a day of rest instead of Sunday. The local constable is said to have refused to act in the matter. The culprit is vouched for as an upright and honorable citizen who is conscientious in his belief that Saturday, the seventh day of the week, is the Divinely-appointed Sabbath. It is claimed that he does not inflict his opinions on those with whom he comes in contact and that his own hired man is asked to work neither Saturday nor Sunday. The Tara Leader does not approve of the action of the Lord's Day Alliance in this instance. Nor does The Sun.

A THOUGHT

Resist the devil and he will flee from you.—James iv, 7.

EXPERT VERSUS NOVICE

Another illustration of expert play follows:

Dummy—spades J 9 5.
East—?
Declarer—clubs A K Q 8 6.
West—?

The average player would confidently proceed to play the Jack of clubs on the first round of spades—lo and behold!—he might find that East holds no spades at all, the distribution being: West clubs 10 7 4 3 2; East clubs none.

As a result of this hasty play, East is assured of winning a trick with the 10 of spades whereas this could have been avoided had the declarer played the King of spades on the first round. Declarer would immediately have discovered that East was blank of spades and could thereafter have finessed with certainty to capture the 10 of spades.

Another illustration of careful play follows:

Dummy—clubs J 9 3 2.
East—?
Declarer—clubs K Q 8 7 5.
West—?

To ascertain the distribution of the missing clubs the declarer plays the King and Queen of clubs (not the Jack of clubs) on the first round of clubs. No matter how the missing cards are distributed, he will lose but one trick in that suit by proper finessing.

URGE BOARD NOT TO DISCRIMINATE

Cement Men Claim Tariff Removal Would Expose Them to Foreign Competition

Ottawa, Sept. 27—Removal of the tariff at present enjoyed by the cement industry in Canada would constitute a distinct discrimination against the producers and would expose them to organized foreign competition, representatives of the cement producers of Canada declared in closing their case for retention of existing import duty, before the Tariff Advisory Board yesterday. The Canadian Council of Agriculture had applied for removal of the duty on the grounds that the industry was sufficiently prosperous without the protection.

Following completion of the producers' case, the hearing adjourned, to meet at the discretion of the boards.

Prof. Gilbert Jackson, Toronto, who submitted the brief on behalf of the producers, in summing up, agreed that for the most part the cement mills in Canada were active and prospering. It did not follow, however, that protection for their product was no longer necessary, he said. "No matter how weak an industry may be, when considered as a whole, there will also certainly be found producers capable of meeting competition from abroad without a vestige of protection," Prof. Jackson said.

FREIGHT COSTS

Other considerations which supported the retention of the tariff, it was claimed, were the higher cost of production attributable to the freight costs of raw materials and production machinery. This disadvantage, Prof. Jackson stated, was reinforced by the handicap of seasonal variation of activity.

Continuing, he asserted that removal of the duty would preclude any adequate return on the capital invested in the existing companies. Further, throughout the greater part of Canada, the mill cost of production would be raised with a resulting increase in prices to the consumer, who would not in any case be accessible to the producers abroad. In order to secure a small benefit for a minority, the majority of the population would be penalized, Prof. Jackson said.

IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

The peculiar handicaps under which the industry in British Columbia is claimed to be operating, was described by E. Tomlin, managing director of the British Columbia Portland Cement Company, Victoria. Since the formation of the first cement company nearly twenty-five years ago, the producers in British Columbia, he said, had been confronted by exceptional conditions. Costs of bringing in raw materials were particularly high. Due to higher wages the cost of production was raised. The industry was faced with peculiar legislative enactments in the eight-hour day and the minimum wage law respecting male labor, while taxation was higher per capita than anywhere else in Canada or the United States.

If the duty on cement were removed, Mr. Tomlin maintained that the market in British Columbia would be rendered particularly vulnerable to European importation. He amplified his claim by a charge that in Germany and other European countries there was a concerted move for the creation of industrial cartels which threatened to swamp the Canadian market if afforded the opportunity.

Communications supporting the retention of the import duties were read to the board. These emanated from the Saint John, N.B., Board of Trade, the Mining Association of British Columbia, and the employees of the British Columbia Cement Company. Another letter from the Coast Cement Company of Vancouver, urged the removal of protection on cement clinkers, which the communication stated, could be manufactured into a high quality of cement and sold to consumers at a price considerably below that prevailing.

W. J. Budd, manager of the company, undertook to establish a crushing plant either at Winnipeg or Fort William if the tariff in clinker cement were abolished. The existence of such a factory, the letter added, would materially assist in lowering the price of cement in the prairie provinces.

Convicted Burglar May Be Deported

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 27.—Deportation proceedings probably will be taken in the case of James A. Johnston, harvester claimed to have been convicted of burglary in Ireland, it was stated at the Department of Immigration yesterday. Johnston was found working on a farm in Hartney, Man. Immigration officials state that he will not be apprehended until a board of inquiry has tested the accuracy of the story.

Information received by the department is to the effect that he pleaded guilty to burglary at Craigbilly, County Armagh, and that sentence was suspended on the understanding that he leave the Old Country. He then went to an adjoining town and booked passage for Canada under the bulk nomination statement.

When Food Sours

Sweeten the stomach—instantly

About two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

It is the quick method. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drug store. (Advt.)

F. V. HOBBS HEADS SCHOOL TRUSTEES

Chosen President of B.C. Association at Annual Meeting

Penticton, B.C., Sept. 27—F. V. Hobbs of Saanich, was chosen unanimously to be president of the British Columbia School Trustees' Association for the ensuing year.

The other officers are C. Leroy, Vernon, first vice-president; A. Peden, Victoria, second vice-president; Capt. George A. Grant, secretary-treasurer. Executive: A. L. McWilliams, Vancouver; A. G. Perry, North Vancouver; Mrs. E. A. Barnard, Nanaimo; S. Bowell, New Westminster.

Nanaimo was selected as the place of next year's convention.

CERTIFICATES FOR INSPECTORS

A resolution submitted by Peachland, and moved by Mrs. Smith, that appointments to the British Columbia inspectorate be made irrespective of sex from among those teachers holding British Columbia inspectors' certificates, was carried.

"The medical inspection of schools in British Columbia stands on a higher plane than in any other part of the North American continent to-day," asserted J. S. Gordon, municipal inspector, Vancouver, in urging the British Columbia School Trustees' Association not to revert to an old regulation involving unnecessary loss of school time by students and teachers in connection with quarantine of contacts with infectious diseases.

HEALTH IN SCHOOLS

A resolution to amend the present regulations was submitted by North Vancouver district, which claimed through the mover, Mrs. D. E. Humphrey, to have traced infection of chicken pox to the new regulation allowing pupils to remain in school for twelve days after rash appeared. The motion was lost.

Mr. Gordon related how the conclusion had been reached that pupils were being kept out of school unnecessarily. Out of 3,000 cases of rubella in Vancouver one year, with 4,000 contacts, there had not been a single case develop inside the first twelve days.

The new regulation had saved the equivalent of one year's tuition for 200 children and he characterized it as one of the most forward steps taken.

B.C. MEN NAMED ON GOOD ROADS BOARD

Hon. N. S. Lougheed is Vice-President; Patrick Philip a Director

Regina, Sept. 27 — Hon. O. L. McPherson, Minister of Public Works for Alberta, was the unanimous choice of the delegates attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Good Roads Association yesterday during the fifteenth convention, to head the association for the forthcoming year. Hon D. A. Stewart, Minister of Public Works for New Brunswick, was elected first vice-president, and Hon. N. S. Lougheed, British Columbia, second vice-president. G. A. McNamee, Montreal, was re-elected as secretary-treasurer. P. Philip, Deputy Minister of Public Works of British Columbia, was elected to the board of directors.

Federal aid for highways, the use of cement in building bridges and roads, elimination of level crossings, the social side of road building, the financial responsibility of urban municipalities in road development, gasoline taxation, Winter roads, and even motion pictures, all had their place on the agenda of the sessions yesterday of the fifteenth convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association.

GRADE CROSSINGS

Outstanding in the day was the announcement of Hon. T. S. Norris that the board had decided to give a more liberal reading to the statutory conditions attaching to the grade crossing fund and that in future it would co-operate to the full with the railway organizations and the Good Roads Association, as well as with provincial governments, with a view to reducing the number of double crossings on highways.

Seven invitations were presented for next year's convention meeting place.

DIRECTORS

In addition to the chief officers elected the following were appointed as the board of directors: J. L. Boulanger, Deputy Minister of Highways, Quebec; J. G. Calder, Saskatoon; J. A. COURT ADJOURNS BOOHER TRIAL

Edmonton Salvation Army Adjutant to Be Questioned on Alleged Confession

Edmonton, Sept. 27.—With another confession apparently in the offing, the trial of Vernon Booher for the Manville murders of July 9, was adjourned until Thursday morning on Wednesday afternoon, in order to allow the crown time to find Adjutant Stewart of the Edmonton Salvation Army, for whom a subpoena was issued at noon on Wednesday, but who could not be found during the afternoon.

Anticipating that the missing witness could give evidence as to a confession by Booher, Neil MacLean, K.C., defence counsel, entered a plea to have him barred on the grounds that a spiritual adviser could not make public confessions made to him.

Chief Justice Simmons overruled this, however, and stated that he would adjourn until the witness was found.

Algertha and Dorothy Booher, sisters of the accused, were the only witnesses examined yesterday afternoon. Their evidence was that they knew of no trouble between Vernon and his mother or Fred. Both agreed that the family harbored no ill-will toward the Miss McMillan, with whom Booher was keeping company

RUSSIAN MUSIC THEME OF CLUB'S FIRST CONCERT

Mrs. J. O. Cameron and Two Brilliant Young Artists Please Musical Club

That the new policy of the Ladies' Musical Club in confining attendance at their concerts to members only is a sound one was proved yesterday afternoon at the opening recital of the season. With a registration to date of nearly 250 members, yesterday's recital brought out a discriminating and appreciative audience, and if the standard of the opening programme is any criterion of what is in store for the rest of the season, then a rapid increase in the membership is assured.

PAPER ON RACHMANINOFF

The nucleus of the programme, given in the ballroom of the Empress Hotel, was a paper by Mrs. J. O. Cameron on "Rachmaninoff and His Contemporaries." Illustrations of the Russian school of music were given by Miss Wilma Wills, a gifted young violinist of Seattle, and Miss Arline Falconvitch, a young pianist already well-known to local audiences, in spite of her youth, as an artist of outstanding ability.

Mrs. Cameron noted in her preamble that to understand and appreciate more fully modern Russian music, it was essential to know something of its history and the surroundings and influences which led to the compositions of what is known as the modern Russian school, and of which Rachmaninoff is perhaps the best known exponent.

FROM SIXTH CENTURY

She traced its development from the sixth century, the Primitive period when the Slavic tribes, the Wends, took great pleasure in their ancient airs, through the Byzantine period when the highest development of the primitive folk-songs came in the reign of Vladimir, the first Christian prince of

ARLINE FALCONVITCH

Russia, up to the Transition period when the influx of foreign culture introduced court choirs and orchestras in the European fashion. It was in 1836 that Glinka and Dargonvirtsky laid the foundation upon which the modern school of Russia rests, said Mrs. Cameron.

She described the literature of Russia which had been kept alive from generation to generation through the medium of lyric poetry, marriage, songs, rural dance songs, funeral dirges, hymns for Christmas, Easter and the feasts of saints, hymns which celebrated the death of Winter and the harvest, epic or narrative songs which told of mythical heroes, such as "Stepanovitch, who crossed the Dneiper at one leap of his horse," religious verses sung by blind singers, and songs depicting the occupations of the people.

"MERRY ANDREWS"

In the very early days of Russia bands of itinerant minstrels, called "Merry Andrews," composed and sang the old songs and kept them alive. Rachmaninoff himself has spoken emphatically upon the relationship of the peasant melodies to the enduring music of any country, and it is significant that "The Song of the Volga Boatmen," with its melancholy air of resignation, is one of the best known Russian songs of to-day.

Early in the eighteenth century Araja, an Italian composer, began to incorporate some of the Russian folk songs into operas, this being the first time that instrumental music was used in the development of these old airs. Then, in the reign of Catherine the Great, music was introduced into girls' schools, and gradually freer expression was given in the field of music, as in the other arts.

It was in 1836, said Mrs. Cameron, that Glinka wrote his opera, "Life for

MENUS FOR THE FAMILY

By SISTER MARY

Breakfast — Orange juice cereal, cream, crisp bacon, cinnamon toast with apples, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Macaroni loaf, Boston brown bread, shredded cabbage with lemon juice, rolled oats cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Fish chowder, scalloped tomatoes and beans, cucumber and endive salad, rice and pear pudding, milk, coffee.

With the exception of the cucumber used in the dinner, there are no dishes suggested that could not be served to children as young as four years. The cabbage should be very finely shredded and served with plenty of olive oil with the lemon juice.

RICE AND PEAR PUDDING

Four fine ripe pears, ½ cup rice, 2 cups milk, 3 eggs, ¾ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 2 tablespoons powdered sugar.

Wash rice through many waters and cook in slightly salted boiling water for twenty minutes. Let water cook away as much as possible without burning rice. Beat two whole eggs and one yolk until very light. Add sugar, milk and vanilla and continue beating. Add rice and mix well. Pare pears, cut in halves and remove cores. Arrange, cut side up, in a buttered baking dish. Pour over and around rice custard. Bake in a moderate oven until rice is firm to the touch. It will take about forty minutes. Beat remaining white of egg until stiff and dry. Beat in powdered sugar. Cover pudding with this mixture and return to a slow oven to puff and brown the meringue. Serve warm or cold, with or without whipped cream.

St. Mark's Tea.—A silver tea will be held on Tuesday next, from 3 to 6 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Thurlow Hodgkinson, Heston Cottage, 2926 Harriet Road, the proceeds being in aid of St. Mark's Church expenses.

WOMEN TO WAIT ON GOVERNMENT

Provincial Council to Renew Appeals on Housing of Mental Cases

Vancouver, Sept. 27.—Attended by delegates from Victoria, Vancouver, New Westminster, Chilliwack and Nanaimo, the quarterly meeting of the Provincial Council of Women was held on Tuesday in the Women's Building, with Mrs. Paul Smith presiding.

The morning session was reserved for routine business, and it was decided to send a delegation to the new Government with old standard council material, including the establishment of a training school for the mentally deficient as outlined in last year's survey submitted by the commission, and the mitigating of certain immigration problems.

At luncheon, Rev. A. H. Sovereign and Mr. George Winter, representing the men's advisory board to the Foundation Fund were the guests of honor, the former speaking at the afternoon session on "Good Citizenship." Mr. Winter stated that hopeful reports were being received from all parts of the Province, indicating that British Columbia would meet its allocation.

As official delegate from British Columbia to the National Council meeting at Toronto this Summer, Mrs. J. D. MacLachlan gave an enthusiastic report of the convention. Interesting impressions of the convention were also given by Mrs. G. O. Fallis, Mrs. J. Thompson of Nanaimo and Mrs. S. D. Scott.

Mentioning the home economics chair for the University of British Columbia, it was urged that this department be established as soon as possible.

Several resolutions were brought in by the laws committee, all of which have been considered by the various councils before this time. One urged that film advertising, theatre advertising and acts put on in vaudeville should be under the power of the censorship board. Others dealt with marriage and the placing of boys under eighteen under Minimum Wage Act.

LOCAL WOMAN'S NEPHEW IS IN EPIC FLIGHT

Flying Officer E. H. Alliott in Trip From England to India and Back

In these days when aviation is making such tremendous strides that epic flights are almost a matter of daily occurrence, the recent 5,000-mile flight accomplished between India and England in four-and-a-half days still stands out as a record-breaking adventure. Piloting the machine were Capt. F. D. Barnard, the well-known British airman, and Flying-Officer E. H. Alliott, a nephew of Mrs. Elizabeth Alliott of Victoria.

DUCHESS AS PASSENGER

These two intrepid airmen left Lympne, England, in June, with their giant monoplane Princess Zenia, carrying the Duchess of Bedford as a passenger. They set out with the object of flying from England to India and back in eight days, but misfortune dogged them. They took four-and-a-half days—record time—for the trip, flying the last 1,400 miles from Sofia to the Croydon Aerodrome without a stop.

WELCOMED BACK

A correspondent of The Daily Sketch, London, was at the aerodrome to greet the flyers on September 6, and says, "I was one of the handful of people who raced across to help pull the monoplane 'home' without the aid of her engine. I could only just catch a glimpse of Capt. F. D. Barnard, but his second-in-command, Flying-Officer E. H. Alliott, perched on the very edge of the cockpit above her nose, called a cheery greeting."

FORCED LANDING

Capt. Barnard in a subsequent interview described the flight: "Everything went well on the way out," he said, "until we reached Bushire on the Persian Gulf. We had barely left the drome there when we made a forced landing. It necessitated a new engine from England.

"That delay, and a further one at Karachi, where we had to wait for a new propeller from England, finished us. Coming home, however, everything went magnificently. The monoplane with its 500 h.p. British Cristol-Jupiter engine, gave every satisfaction. We left Zarachi at dawn, on Sunday, reached Bushire the same day, Monday and Tuesday took us right across the desert to Aleppo, and last night we got to Sofia. We have flown 1,400 miles non-stop from there to-day.

"This flight has demonstrated what we set out to prove—the commercial possibilities of such an effort and by way of cargo we brought back with us a chest of tea.

Col. Edwards of the Air Ministry was among the huge crowd which welcomed the airmen.

In Reverse Aagain

A very absent-minded man, accompanied by his wife, was returning home from the theatre.

As they reached the door of their home the man clutched his wife's arm.

"Now who is absent-minded?" he cried triumphantly, producing two umbrellas from under his arm. "You've forgotten your umbrella, but I've mine and yours as well!"

The woman gazed at him pityingly. "Idiot!" she exclaimed. "Neither of us had one."

His Throat Is Sore

Old MacTavish was not a mean man. No; he just knew the value of money.

"Say, doctor, hoo's beeznees wi' ye the noo?"

"Oh, fair, fair."

"I s'pose ye've a deal o' prescribin' tae dae fer coolds an' sair throats?"

"Ah."

"An' what dae ye gin'rally gie fer a sair throat?"

"Naethin', I dinna want a sair throat."

RUSSIAN MUSIC THEME OF CLUB'S FIRST CONCERT

the Czar," which was so distinctly Russian as to stand out from anything produced up to that time. Dargonvirtsky, a contemporary, also wrote an opera, "The Stone Guest," with words by Pushkin, one of Russia's greatest men of letters. Other composers of that period were Balakirev, Cesar Cui, Borodine, Moussorgsky and Rimsky-Korsakov.

"The two names that stand for opposite forms of musical composition in our own day are Scriabine, who died in 1915, and Igor Stravinsky. Scriabine was an experimenter in music and a mystic, and Stravinsky was decidedly futuristic. Between these two extremes is Sergei Rachmaninoff, the man who represents to us the genius of Russia."

RACHMANINOFF'S WORKS

Mrs. Cameron reviewed the life and works of Rachmaninoff, among others touching upon his opera, "Aleko," his "Trio Elegiaque," dedicated to Tchaikovsky, his opera, "The Miser Knight," his "Francesca de Rimini," and his symphonic poem, "The Island of Death," which was inspired by Boecklin's painting. His third symphony, "The Bells," written to the words of Edgar Allan Poe, shows the fullest development of Rachmaninoff's orchestral style.

The paper concluded with some of the tributes paid to Rachmaninoff by Josef Hoffman and Harold Bauer, the latter saying, "I believe Rachmaninoff is intolerant of one thing alone—insincerity. Were he less the magnificent musician than he is, had he attained success in only a few instances, instead of having written masterpieces in every branch of art, he would still afford a noble example to all his colleagues in his unswerving and uncompromising devotion to an ideal."

Miss Wilma Wills, who played as her first number the showy "Russian Airs du Souvenir de Moscow" (Wieniawsky), displayed unusual brilliance of tone and crisp phrasing. She gave two additional numbers, a Tschaikowsky concerto and, as an encore, the Schubert song, on the mute. Her sister, Miss Dorothy Wills, lent excellent support at the piano.

Glinka's "The Lark," transcribed by Balakirev, Chopin's "Black Key Etude," and his waltz in E flat, provided Miss Arline Falconvitch with opportunity of displaying her outstanding gifts as a pianist. Temperamental and imaginative, with a background of sound technique, her playing is unusually appealing in its beauty. Her audience was so insistent in its demands that, as an encore, she gave Dalquhi's "Cuckoo," rounding out a programme of high standard, and one on which the club is warmly to be congratulated.

NANCY PAGE

SORORITY SISTERS SIP TEA IN THE AFTERNOON

By Florence La Ganke

Peter's sister was going back to the finishing school in California. She had graduated in June, but they offered a post graduate course which she begged to be allowed to take since she "adored" California. Some of her Eastern friends were giving a farewell shower for her. Since most of the girls had been away at school themselves they knew just what a girl wanted and needed.

Their first gift was a community one since it was expensive—an electric teapot for use on the afternoon tea table. It had a nice, bulging, fat, comfortable shape and everybody loved it at sight.

Another gift was a set of hand-woven Basque tea tablecloth and napkins. They were not expensive, but were gay with their creamy background and stripes in black and yellow or in gold and red.

The last box to be opened was one containing six tea mugs on a tray. It looked just the sort of china a college girl would want—not too fine but individual and distinctive. It went well with the teacloth and napkins.

There was a set of Nancy Page leaflets, too. Perhaps Peter's sister appreciated these as much as anything else, since she was so fond of the nice Nancy whom her brother had married. It was her wish to be as near like her sister-in-law as she could. Nancy herself poured tea at the end of the party and served some of her delectable sandwiches.

YOU CAN DRESS YOUR HAIR TO PLEASE YOURSELF NOW

Styles in hair dressing have disappeared. The smart woman wears her hair as she pleases.

So reports Celia Caroline Cole, beauty expert of Delineator. Barbers, Miss Cole finds, all disagree on the question of "Long or short?" "One says this, the other says that. And the result is that their disagreement leaves us free as the changing truth. Since Michael says bob and swirls and Pierre says long hair and straight—don't you see, we can do as we like! Each finds her own—long or short, as she likes, straight or curly, as her type suggests—modish or like the old masters' boys—temperament, imagination and one's type should decide. And all the heads in the world differing one from another.

"The barber who has a more or less fixed style should be disbarred (or is it disbarbed?)—he has failed, if all his clients carry the stamp of him. Type and bone structure and height and weight and temperament should direct how one's hair should be dressed. Truth for you is the finest, highest thing in you. What is style for you? The thing that exactly suits your type."

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

WINTER CLOTHING DEPENDENT UPON HEAT IN HOME

Mrs. F. H. G. writes:

"My little boy will be two years old this Winter and I am wondering how he should be dressed. He is a rather thin child and I am afraid to take off his bands, which he has been wearing since babyhood."

ANSWER

The bands can come off now. If the child is of a "chilly" type and seems to feel the cold, it might be better for this Winter to use a light-weight cotton and wool shirt, cotton panties, heavy cotton ribbed hose and a heavy cotton suit. That ought to be warm enough for a house whose average temperature is about 72 degrees.

Ordinarily I think the small child is dressed far too warmly in the house and far too lightly out of doors. Mothers seem to check their imaginations when it comes to clothing and go about themselves swathed in heavy fur coats, dragging small children dressed beautifully and inadequately in thin wool coats and infinitesimal fur collars. Hose and shoes are dainty as pictures, but hardly suitable for raw, cold days. Little boys usually have the best of it, for the clothes made for them are of the heavy sports variety and warm enough for all purposes.

In the home heated by steam, or even hot air, to a degree that is little different from Summer heat, there is little necessity for small children who run about all day to have on anything but cotton garments. When they go on the streets they should have leggings, overshoes, heavy coats, and if they aren't heavy, a woolen sweater underneath them.

SWEATER SUITS APPROPRIATE FOR FALL, NOT WINTER

Just as this moment I wish I could persuade mothers that the small sweater suits for babies under one year are not warm enough for Winter wear. They are all right for Fall, but, cunning as they are and woolly as they look, the wind goes right through them. Even infants need warm woolen outer garments, and less smothering woolens in the house.

It is obvious that no ironclad rules can be laid down for clothing. The type of heat used in the homes, whether steam, hot water, hot air or stove heat, must be the deciding factor. As adults are always inclined to feel the cold more quickly than active children, one can be sure that if an adult is comfortable in the house in Summer garments, the child will be also. The tendency is away from heating garments indoors and more sensible attire for outdoor, and a very good thing, too. Children dressed in woolen underwear are bound to be almost on the verge of perspiration indoors, if at all active, and such a condition predisposes to frequent colds.

Roller skates were invented in 1823.

200 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

For 200 years Fry's has been highly valued for children

FROM the far off days of George II, and on through the reigns of George III, George IV, William IV, Victoria, Edward VII and our present sovereign, George V, the cocoa (or chocolate) made by this historic House has ever been given a high place as an article of diet for children.

Little ones were thriving on this famous food beverage for nearly 140 years before Canadian confederation.

And FRY'S is still the choice of mothers throughout Canada and the world who wish their children to grow bonny and strong. The experience of 200 years makes it supreme for quality and for taste-tempting flavour. Have you a tin of FRY'S in your home today?

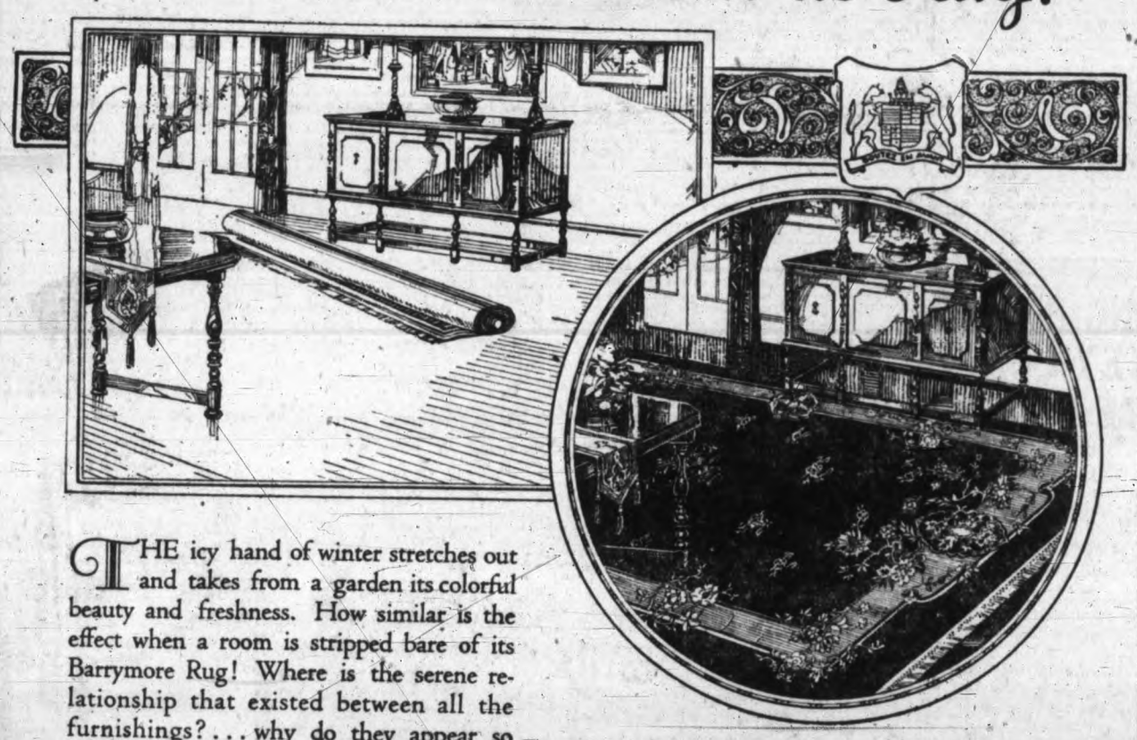
How Barren, Mute and Empty is a Room Without its Rug!



THE icy hand of winter stretches out and takes from a garden its colorful beauty and freshness. How similar is the effect when a room is stripped bare of its Barrymore Rug! Where is the serene relationship that existed between all the furnishings? . . . why do they appear so angular and harsh? . . . where is that spirit of hospitality and cheerfulness?

Just as Nature binds its colorings together by a boundless green carpet, even thus does a Barrymore bring unity to your whole room scheme. The rich mellow colorings of the rug find their echoing notes in the tints of the walls, curtains, upholsteries. The lustrous, luxurious pile invites the tread . . . the whole room is a silent gesture of welcome!

Study each room in your house with a critical eye, and ask yourself frankly if new rugs would not make a real, striking difference. Then visit any good house furnishing store (they all sell Barrymores) and learn the small amount it would take to recarpet with the beautiful, famous Barrymore. Master Showman Prepares Stirring Scenes

Ball Teams Sweep Into Final Scenes Of Gripping Drama

New York Giants, Trailing St. Louis Cards by Half a Game, Open Four-game Series Against Chicago; Cards Hoping to Take Three Straight From Boston; Yankees in Detroit With Pennant Nearly Cinched; Brooklyn Defeats St. Louis Through Splendid Twirling

The mad drama portrayed by baseball in the season of 1928 sweeps into its final scene, where the great climax must be reached by nightfall on Sunday. The Yankees have dragged themselves into Detroit with some trepidation regarding the final five games of the season, for all of the fact that three victories will put them where they cannot be caught, even if the Mackmen succeed in taking four straight from the White Sox. Many things have happened to the Yankees in the last three months and they won't believe this sixth pennant is theirs until they can feel it.

On the other side of the stage, the Master Showman prepares for the final stirring scenes designed to give his actors the front and centre. John J. McGraw has no hundred million fans praying for his success, but he gets there just the same. He finds he made himself wealthy on the good-natured state of baseball followers outside of New York and yet he enjoys giving them yet other things for which to hate him more.

CRUCIAL SERIES

The Giants, now only half a game behind the Cardinals as a result of Dazzy Vance's brilliant victory in Brooklyn yesterday, are face to face with the Cubs for four engagements, beginning with a double-header this afternoon and the pennant hangs upon every pitch.

The Cubs remained theoretically in the running yesterday by taking a parting shot at the Phillies by 8 to 3, while the Cardinals were losing and they plan to fight the Giants hard enough at least to keep John McGraw's boys out of the flag, even though they realize it no longer is possible for Chicago's effort to be rewarded with a championship.

BRAVES DANGEROUS

While the Cubs are making threatening motions towards John McGraw's cherished ambition, the Cardinals will be in Boston, where they hope to fatten upon three games against the defenceless Braves. It would seem from this distance that the Redbirds should sail into the Polo Grounds on Sunday for the final clash with a margin of one game over the fighting cohorts of McGraw, but the despised Braves have been known to turn upon their tormentors when least expected.

Any margin greater than one game, of course, would convert Sunday's final into something just a little less than an ordinary ball game.

GOAL IS THREE STRAIGHT

The goal of the Cardinals, therefore, is three straight on the banks of the Charles and a prayer that the Cubs can win two in New York.

The desperation, if any, attaching to the St. Louis situation at this moment was brought about yesterday afternoon upon the chilly reaches of Ebbetts Field. The disgraceful misconduct of certain Robins, notably Dazzy Vance and Hendrick, toward their betters is to blame for it all. Dazzy held the Cards to five harmless hits, fanned seven to hit the 200 mark for the season and waddled impudently away with his twenty-second victory.

The Robins made the final score read 6 to 1.

There were no scheduled games in the American League.

U.S. WOMEN TAKE FIRST POLO MATCH

Defeat Calgary 5-2; Fair Sex Stage Fast and Exciting Game

Winners Had Advantage in Mounts; Mrs. Violet May Outstanding Player

New York, Sept. 27.—Women are having their day in polo, one of the most masculine of sports. Opening a two-game series, the women's team of Westchester County defeated the Calgary, Alberta, team, representing Canada, 5 goals to 2, at the Westchester-Biltmore Country Club yesterday.

The second match of the series will be played October 7 and total goals will decide the victory.

Although they were slower and more inclined to respect their opponents shins than masculine players, the women staged a fast enough game and not without excitement. Their principal faults were seen in stroking and in a tendency to over-ride the ball.

BIG ADVANTAGE

The Westchester women had a great advantage over their opponents in their mounts. The Canadian horses arrived here only a few days ago after a long rail journey and were not in good playing condition.

The Americans displayed a slight superiority in stroking and team play.

Outstanding among the eight players was Mrs. Violet May, No. 3 on the Calgary team. On the defence she was a tower of strength, while in the closing periods she got the Canadian attack working smoothly around her and scored both of their goals.

HIGH SCORER

Mrs. James Hewlett, Westchester No. 3, was the high scorer for the Americans, with four of the five goals. The other came from the mallet of Mary Leary, captain and back.

The line-up for the winners was: No. 1, Becky Lanier; No. 2, Sally Lanier; No. 3, Mrs. Hewlett; back, Mary Leary.

The Calgary team lined up with Dorothy Hunt Hogan, No. 1; Bunn Dewdney, No. 2; Mrs. Violet May, No. 3, and Mary Atkins, back.

CHILDREN PREPARE FOR GALA

Young Swimmers Practicing For Event to Be Held on October 5

Keen Competition Expected When Coming "Weismullers" Race

Many youngsters have been going through their paces at the Crystal Garden lately in preparation for the fourth annual school children's gala to be held under the auspices of the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club on October 5, and from the talent displayed in practices a more closely contested meet than any previously held is expected.

Several boys and girls have been at the pool regularly trying the various dives, which they intend to perform in competition. In addition to these many others have been perfecting their strokes and increasing their speed for the swimming races.

LIFE SAVING TROPHY

Of the prizes which have been donated for winners in the different events, the Anscomb Life Saving Cup will call forth a lot of competition among the youthful exponents of the art of life saving, while the inter-school relay race for the Canadian Legion, Britannia Branch Cup will be keenly contested by boys under the age of fifteen.

In order to prevent any tedious delays during the programme, the management of the Crystal Garden have offered the use of the pool on Thursday evening next for the elimination heats if a sufficiently large number of entries are received. Last year about 150 school children competed in the gala and indications point to a larger entry this year.

THE PROGRAMME

The programme follows:

Anscomb Life Saving Cup—Competitors must hold the elementary and proficiency certificate of the Royal Life Saving Society and be under sixteen years of age and must undergo the following tests: (a) Each competitor to swim twent-five years breast stroke; (b) each competitor to swim twenty-five yards back stroke, using legs only; (c) swim to and carry by the society's first method of rescue, for a distance of fifteen yards, a patient selected by the society; (d) demonstrate the second method of release from the clutch of a drowning person; (e) dive from the surface for a weighted object in a depth of five feet of water.

Lightweight Champ Has to Cancel Bouts as Result of Broken Collarbone

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 27. — Sammy Mandell, world's lightweight champion, will be kept out of the ring at least three months as the result of a fractured left collar bone suffered in the first round of his bout with Jimmy Goodrich at Flint, Michigan, Tuesday night.

X-ray pictures yesterday revealed the collarbone had been completely fractured. Mandell, following the advice of his physician, was forced to cancel his match with Lopez Tenerio, scheduled for Cleveland October 8, and several other attractive offers.

RETURNS HOME

Mandell returned to his home in Rockford immediately after the fight to have the fracture set. He said the injury occurred in the first five seconds of the contest when Goodrich, the former titleholder, sent a wild swing crashing down to the collar bone as he stepped in to avoid the blow. Although suffering intensely from the pain, Mandell stuck the round out, reported his injury to his seconds and they called a physician and the bout was stopped.

Although given a technical knockout over Mandell, Goodrich did not win the title as he had agreed to enter the ring over the lightweight limit.

Montreal's Hoary Hero—By Jimmy Thompson

The 1928 Eastern Canadian golf season will soon make its final fade-out. During the year new champions have come and conquered, old ones have dropped out of the running, but there is one famous golfer who goes on seemingly forever. He is smiling Charlie Murray, the Royal Montreal Golf Club's genial professional. Charlie might well be called the father, if not the grandfather, of the game in Canada, for he has been clouting the pill these twenty years, since first capturing the Canadian pro title. Since that time he has frequently won the Quebec title, and has tucked away the Canadian title twice. The first of these occasions was when he won it from his brother Albert Murray, who later achieved the same high honor by defeating that dean of Canadian golfers, Geo. Cumming, in 1924.

Of recent years the Canadian championship has, with the advent of outstanding American stars, been much more seriously fought for. Nevertheless the smiling pro of the Royal Montreal keeps bobbing up always somewhere near if not actually at the top. In 1920 he was tied for the title at Ottawa, while in 1926 he was bracketed for fourth place with the famous Johnny Farrell, present United States open champion. Murray gets in twelve months of golf a year, and in a few weeks when the Eastern Canadian season closes, he will pack his grips and heading for the sunny South, where he will spend the Winter on the links of balmy Florida.

ANNUAL MEETING OF NEW COAST HOCKEY LEAGUE IN SEATTLE OCTOBER 22

The first annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Hockey League will take place in Seattle on October 22, when officers will be elected, a schedule adopted and the rules gone over in detail.

Whether changes in the playing code as existed in the former coast and prairie leagues will be made, remains to be seen.

Some of the interested clubs have certain minor changes to propose and these will be adopted or discarded at this annual meeting.

Organization of the league as a playing entity will not be formally undertaken until that date but it is already definite that the league will include the cities of Vancouver, Victoria, Portland and Seattle.

FAME MAY COME TO M'KECHNIE

If St. Louis Wins He Will Be Second Manager to Cop Flag in Two Cities

Late Pat Moran Led Phillies and Reds to Pennants; N.L. Titles Monopolized

If the St. Louis Cardinals cop the National League pennant this season, Bill McKechnie will have the honor of putting over an achievement accomplished by only one other National League manager in the last twenty-nine seasons. And that is, piloting a flag winner in two different cities.

Back in 1915 the late Pat Moran led the Phillies to the gonfalon. Four years later he turned the same trick for Cincinatti. In each instance it was the only time the Phils or Reds finished on top.

McKechnie, it will be recalled, was manager of the Pirates when they won the pennant in 1925, the first Pittsburgh championship over a sixteen-year stretch. Now Bill has a chance to equal the feat hung up by Moran nine years ago.

HAVE BEEN MONOPOLIZED

National League titles, by the way, have been pretty much monopolized by the Clarke-Chance-McGraw combine. Clarke, while bossing the Pirates, copped four flags; Chance, with his peerless Chicago Cub machine, reached the purple heights four times, too, and McGraw and his Giants have shown the way on ten occasions. Thus the famous triumvirate has accounted for eighteen old league championships since Clarke led Pittsburgh to the throne in 1901.

The only other National League pilot to win more than one pennant in modern play is Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers. Uncle Robbie put his club on top in 1916 and 1920.

From 1901 until 1914 the championship was nothing but a Clarke-Chance-McGraw affair. The came George Stallings to break the ice with the sensational rush of his Boston Braves in 1914. But for that thrilling July to October march McGraw would have added another flag to his string.

Outside of Stallings there have been just four one-time winners—Fred Mitchell (Cubs) in 1918; McKechnie (Pirates) in 1925; Hornsby (Cardinals) in 1926 and Donie Bush (Pirates) in 1927.

McGRAW LEADS

In the matter of world series championships, McGraw has won three, Chance two and Clarke, Stallings, Moran, McKechnie and Hornsby one each. Robinson was on the short end on both of his attempts while Moran and Mitchell couldn't gain the game's highest laurels, either, Bush failed in his first effort but may get another chance to make the grade.

Since 1910, when Chance led his Cubs to their third straight flag from his position at first base, Rogers Hornsby ranks as the only active playing pilot to command a pennant winner in the National circuit.

Virtually all of these successful leaders rose from the ranks of players, however. McGraw, in his young days, was a star at third base; Robinson was a catcher; as also was Moran; Mitchell was a pitcher; McKechnie second baseman and Bush a shortstop. Oddly enough, many of them starred in the American League before going over to the older circuit.

Chicago Baseball Teams Will Clash

Chicago, Sept. 27—The Chicago city baseball championship series will be resumed this year with Lena Blackburne's White Sox defending the title won in 1926.

Appearing before Commissioner Landis, President William L. Veeck of the Cubs yesterday formally challenged the Sox, and Harry Grabiner, secretary of the champions, accepted.

The first game of the series, which will be the best four-out-of-seven-game affair, will be played October 4.

"Torchy" Peden Wins 25-mile Road Race Held At Southgate

Victoria Cyclist Completes Distance in Fast Time of One Hour, Three Minutes and Thirty-one Seconds; Accompanied by Lew Elder, Victoria Boy Completes Tour of European Countries; Had Great Success in Warsaw; Riders Received Wonderful Treatment; Leave for Home Shortly

Tipping the scales at 205 pounds and in the best of condition, "Torchy" Peden, Victoria's member of this year's Canadian Olympic cycling team, is having the time of his life making a tour of Europe, according to word received by The Times from Bill. He is at present in London, having completed his trip through Poland and Germany. Peden is being accompanied on the trip by Lew Elder of Toronto, another member of the Canadian team.

Bill added fresh laurels to his list on Saturday when he captured a twenty-five mile road race held at Southgate, England. Bill completed the course in the fast time of one hour, three minutes and thirty-one seconds, competing against a number of the crack riders of England. A telegram to this effect was received by his father on Sunday.

In a recent issue of The Daily Mirror of London there is a picture of Elder and Peden taken after they had defeated P. Wyld and M. G. Southall of England in a ten-lap pursuit race held by the National Cyclists' Union at Herne Hill. They completed the distance in six minutes and twelve seconds.

TREATED WELL

Bill is on the last lap of his journey and will leave shortly for home. In writing of his visit to Warsaw, Bill states that he received wonderful treatment. Elden and Peden were made life members of the Polish Cycling Club, an honor seldom conferred on outsiders. In every country the riders have visited they have been entertained and made to feel right at home.

WIN AT WARSAW

The two Canadian riders met with great success in Warsaw. Lew Elder won his race over 1,000 metres, while Peden captured a five-kilometre lap race. Bill states he left the rest of the field at about one kilometre and finished about a fourth of a lap ahead.

Bill has sent home a programme of the events staged at Warsaw. The 1,000 metre event is called a Scratchu Miedzynarodowego. Peden's lap race was called a Bieg Pofdystansowy.

During their races at Warsaw, Peden and Elder met their stiffest opposition from Mazairac of Holland, runner up at the Olympic games. The Canadians were also under a handicap through the fact that the races are started differently. They were also on a strange track.

NEDDIE WINNER OF RICH STAKE

Captures Eastern Shore Handicap at Havre de Grace to Take $24,400

New York, Sept. 27.—Neddie, E. B. McLean's two-year-old son of Colin, was the winner of the rich Eastern Shore Handicap from a field of sixteen of the best juveniles in Maryland, at Havre de Grace yesterday.

Neddie, coming from behind in the stretch led R. E. Coe's Cheers by a length at the finish. The Greentree Stables Justinian took third. The winner's portion of the stake was $24,400, and by winning this Neddie put the McLean Stable at the head of the winning owners for 1928. The distance was six furlongs. Neddie paid $12.50 for a $2 mutuel ticket.

Cheers and My Sis made the pace during the early stages. The Coe colt had a lead of three lengths at the top of the stretch but tired badly.

H. P. Whitney's Victorian set a new track record for one and one-sixteenth miles in winning the Trial Stakes from Crusader and Strolling Player. His time was 1.44 2-5.

FAVORITE WINS

Willis Sharpe Kilmer's star, Sun Edwin, ridden by "Pony" McAtee, won the $10,000 added Stanley Produce Stake at Woodbine. Charlemagne took second place and Hanna Deebe third. Sun Edwin shouldered 126 pounds, and covered the 1¼ miles in 2.08. The winner paid $2.15 straight in the mutuels.

The Wheatley Farm's Distraction scored an unexpected victory in the $3,500 added Bayview Handicap at Aqueduct. The son of Chicle out of Baloncoire, stood off a challenge by the favorite, Chance Play, in the stretch, and won drawing away by half a length. Distraction's showing was a distinct improvement over his recent efforts. Glade, the only other starter, was third. The winner paid 4 to 1, while Chance Play was held at 2 to 5.

Canadian Horses Capture Ribbons At Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Sept. 27—Sir Clifford Sifton of Toronto, noted Canadian horseman, was the winner of three ribbons yesterday at the annual Bryn Mawr horse sports.

LEO MARCHORI SETS RECORDS

Captures Majority of Honors at Mainland Bicycle Meet; Victoria Boy Wins

Vancouver, Sept. 27—Leo Marchori, by his superb riding at the Vancouver Bicycle Club's annual race meet at Brockton Point yesterday, captured all-round honors for British Columbia and sent records tumbling. Marchori added the mile open, the quarter-mile open and the 220-yard sprint to his five-mile title which he won in Victoria last Labor Day. In addition he shattered the record for gruelling road race around Stanley Park, covering the distance in 14 minutes 22 2-5 seconds, with Stan "Red" Jackson just two feet behind at the finish.

It was an exhausting effort that the riders made in the road race. Jackson, from Victoria, now definitely located in Vancouver, set the pace until the last few yards of the struggle when Marchori came from third to second place and finally shot past the leader with about 100 yards to travel.

DAVIES NOT PLACED

Behind them came Stan Dowling, not more than a few feet to the rear to take a close third. Jim Davies, one of Canada's Olympic stars, was not in sight when the first three riders came to the finish. They were riding among the "A" class.

The "B" class was less than two minutes behind and Salonen, just a youngster, led them in. Right on Salonen's wheel came little Pete Tyson of Victoria, riding his third heartbreaking race for the day and just nosed out at the finish. Crippen rode third. Their time was 16 minutes 10 seconds.

VICTORIAN WINS

Wes F. Askey, of Victoria, brought the "C" class riders home. He came pedaling over the finish in 19.45, and the field strung out behind him. C. Jordon and D. Cooke Jr. riding second and third respectively.

Hunters Urged To Be Careful When Visiting Forests

As investigations into the cause of forest fires show that eighty-five per cent of the conflagrations are caused by carelessness and that the number increases as people visit the woods, all hunters are urged to use the utmost care when lighting campfires and throwing away matches.

For the last few weeks humidity has been exceedingly low, and it is hoped that people will do everything in their power to prevent forest fires while they are visiting the woods.

INDIANAPOLIS OBTAIN LEAD

Defeat Rochester 3-2 in First Game of Little World's Baseball Series

Rochester, N.Y., Sept. 27.—In an eleven inning pitchers' battle, the Indianapolis Indians took the first game in the little world's series from Rochester yesterday, 3 to 2.

Steve Swetopy and Vic Keen, leading right-handers of the two clubs, went the full route and held their opponents scoreless for six innings.

Two walks, one of them intentional, and a trick double in the eleventh gave the Indians two runs and the game, although the Wings pushed over one in their half and had two men on the bags when Kaufman filed to Warstler for the final out.

Both teams threatened in the early innings, but were unable to bring in a run.

Keen's wild throw of Spencer's sacrifice in the seventh allowed Klenkiron, who had singled, to score the first run of the game. It looked like the American Association champions would get another when Spencer went to third on Warstler's out, but Felix cut him down at the plate after taking in Burrus's fly.

The Wings got their first run in the eighth on singles by Gilbert and Monahan.

Cool weather kept the opening day crowd to a total of 4,703 paid admissions. The teams meet again to-day and then rest a day, playing here on Saturday and Sunday.

Rochester, N.Y., Sept. 26.—The second game of the little world's series between Rochester and Indianapolis was postponed to-day because of rain and cold weather.

Totem Brass Band To Broadcast From KOMO This Evening

Introducing itself with the superb "Grand March" from Verdi's "Aida," the Totem Brass Band will make its bow to Northwest listeners in the first of a series of Thursday evening programmes to-night. These programmes will feature musical numbers especially adapted to a concert brass band. In the one-hour programme between 6 and 7 o'clock to-night, other numbers given by the Totem Brass Band will be "Pilgrims' Chorus" from "Tannhauser," by Wagner; Overture to Orpheus in der Unterwelt," by Offenbach, and several of Sousa's marches, including "Washington Post March" and "Hands Across the Sea." "Sextette from 'Lucia di Lammermoor'," by Donizetti will be presented by the Totem Brass Sextette.

In direct contrast to the programme given by the Totem Brass Band, KOMO will broadcast a half-hour programme starting at 10 o'clock and featuring the Totem Artists' Trio, in a "Half Hour with Masters of Chamber Music." During the Summer months this "Half Hour with Masters of Chamber Music" proved so popular with musical students and those appreciative of the finer works of great composers that it has become an evening feature for the Winter listeners instead of an afternoon feature as it was during the Summer. Josef Haydn's "Trio in E Flat Major" (Trio No. 8) will be featured this evening.

Immediately following the half hour of chamber music the Totem Syncro-Rhythmists, a new dance combination, will be heard in an hour of dance music, offering hits of the day and several symphonic numbers. Among the symphonic selections to be offered will be a new arrangement of "The Swan" by Saint-Saens.

AMATEUR BOXING

To the Sports Editor:—The keen interest which is being shown in boxing in Victoria to-day speaks well for the Tillicum Athletic Club. About eighteen months ago boxing in Victoria was a sport of the past. The Tillicum Athletic Club, against great odds then, and much discouragement, attempted to stage a comeback of the manly sport in our city. After considerable amount of expense and worry, enough boys were rounded into shape and their first amateur tournament was staged before an audience of about 100, which must have meant a financial loss to the club. They were not discouraged, but continued their good work for the amateur, encouraging and training the boys, until they built up their boys and staged tournaments to a crowded house. Great credit is due the club and the amateurs who helped them make such a success.

It was at this time that the professional promoters again came to life after the amateurs had paved the way. Several of the club's amateurs appear to-day as headliners on the professional cards now being staged in this city. To further encourage the amateur the club has gone to considerable expense and hired a first class boxing instructor, who is at the club gymnasium every night.

Surely anyone wishing to learn boxing will appreciate this step to better boxing, and will take advantage of the generous offer extended by the club in giving free lessons to those willing to learn. Any surplus funds derived from these tournaments is spent to better the gymnasium, and to encourage the other branches of amateur sport.

I understand the club intends to stage its first amateur tournament early in October, and it is to be hoped that the public support given these tournaments last Winter will again be shown this year, as they certainly deserve credit.

MOONE'S EMERALD OIL

"Wet" gasoline Down the cylinder walls into your oil

OUT OF THE CRANKCASE, when you drain it, comes a thin blackish fluid—not the rich oil you bought five hundred or a thousand miles back.

Full of gasoline you bought for power, for mileage. "Wet" gasoline that didn't explode, that trickled down the cylinder walls—worse than wasted for it has ruined your oil!

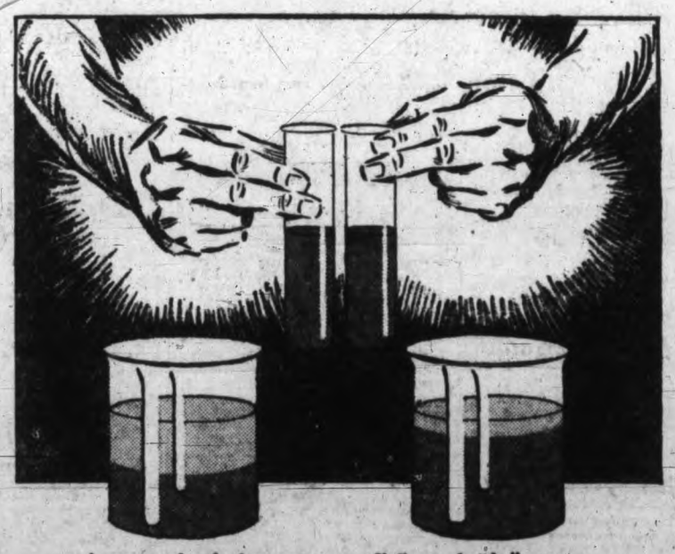
Yet lubrication men say they are finding many crankcases in which the oil is surprisingly free from dilution!

Connect that fact with this:

More and more drivers are careful to buy only Shell 400. Refined to an exact point, Shell 400 goes completely vaporized into the motor—a "dry" gas. It explodes cleanly, swiftly, leaving no "wet" particles, no waste. And so the words "more mileage," "more power," have at last taken on a real meaning!

Fill with Shell 400 today. Use it exclusively. It costs no more than ordinary gasoline.

In starting, Shell 400 requires less choke than "wet" gas but can stand more without causing thinning



An example of what a thousand miles of ordinary driving with ordinary gasoline can do—oil 51% "gasoline"—thinning caused by incomplete explosion of "wet" gas

Shell 400, the "dry" gas reduces oil thinning to a minimum. Notice this example—only 9.2% in a thousand miles of ordinary driving

SHELL 400

The "DRY" GAS

Shell Motor Oil, a new lubricant that forms less carbon, soft carbon, is the ideal running mate for Shell 400. Don't offset the good effects of Shell 400 by using an oil less fine than improved Shell Motor Oil

DEEP SEA, COASTWISE SHIPPING, AND RAILROAD NEWS

Jap Liner Grounds Near Aberdeen But Comes Off At Noon

Rozan Maru Runs on Beach Early This Morning in Dense Fog; Salvage King Prepares to Steam to Rescue of Stranded Vessel, But She Comes Off Under Her Own Steam at Noon.

After being ashore on the beach at a point three miles south of the entrance to Aberdeen, Wash., for nearly twelve hours, the Japanese freighter Rozan Maru came off under her own steam at noon to-day, according to advice received in the City by the Pacific Salvage Company, who had their vessel Salvage King ready to proceed to the scene of the stranding should it be necessary.

GROUNDED IN FOG

The Rozan went aground at 12.30 o'clock this morning in a dense fog. Officers of the ship sent out no distress signals and the plight of the vessel was not discovered until a patrol of the Westport coastguard station noticed the lights close to the beach and investigated. The ship was then resting in about five feet of water at low tide. Her bottom was sound. A coastguard boat stood by to look after the crew. A line was not put aboard, as the men could easily have been landed by a small boat in the comparatively light surf.

Coastguard vessels and tugs in the vicinity attempted to pull the ship off the beach, but were unable to do so. The sandy beach made it impossible for a tug to approach within half a mile of the vessel on the seaward side owing to shallow water.

The Rozan Maru was in practically the same position as the Tenpasian Maru was last November when she went ashore and was wrecked at Chehalis. The Rozan, which is in command of Capt. S. Hada, is under charter to Yamacho and Company.

Immediately upon hearing of the stranding this morning, the tug Tyee from Gray's Harbor and the coastguard cutter Algonquin proceeded to the scene of the wreck.

The Salvage King, in her berth in the Inner Harbor here, got up steam in preparation to proceed to the aid of the Rozan at a minute's notice should the stranded vessel need her help.

BUILT IN 1919

The Rozan Maru is a steel vessel of 5,447 tons. She was built in Japan in 1919 and is registered in Kobe. She has a length of 400 feet, fifty-three foot beam, and a depth of twenty-nine feet.

DINNER HONORS CAPT. BEETHAM

Officers of the C.P.R. Fete Retiring Superintendent at Banquet

Function is Held in Dining Saloon of Empress of Russia

Vancouver, Sept. 27.—Officers of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company of Vancouver paid a striking tribute to Capt. Edward Beetham, R.N.R., retiring superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Steamships Limited, last evening when they banqueted him on the liner Empress of Russia, one of the Pacific fleet and the ship originally brought from the builders in Scotland by Capt. Beetham himself.

Capt. Edmund Aikman, successor to Capt. Beetham in the coast superintendency, struck the keynote of the speeches succeeding the dinner when he spoke of the loyalty and confidence that had been engendered in all ranks of the ocean services under Capt. Beetham's regime, and expressed the hope that similar conditions would lead to equal advances under his command.

N. R. Desbrisay, general passenger agent at Vancouver, presided over the dinner, at which a handsome presentation was made to the guest of honor. Among those present were F. W. Peters, Charles Murphy, retired general manager western lines, and W. J. Blake Wilson, a director of the C.P.R.

A toast to the Canadian Pacific Railway was replied to by C. A. Cotterell, general superintendent British Columbia district, and a succeeding toast to the Canadian Pacific steamships was replied to by Capt. Edmund Aikman, Capt. W. M. Davidson and Capt. A. J. Hosken, R.N.R., commander of the Russia, and at one time first officer under Capt. Beetham on the same ship.

Other speakers included J. E. McMullen, C.P.R. solicitor, Vancouver; J. J. Forster, steamship general passenger agent; J. G. MacNab, foreign freight agent; A. T. McKean, assistant general freight agent; J. F. Maguire, district baggage agent; Capt. C. D. Neroutsos, manager of B.C. Coast steamship services.

MAY CROSS SEA INDEFINITELY

Unique Immigration Case May Send Man Back and Forth Across Atlantic

New York, Sept. 27.—Etienne Leblanc, a Canadian whose parents live at Lachine, Que., is held at Ellis Island awaiting the next step of his involuntary tour of the world. He was taken off the French liner De Grasse on Monday and will be sent back to France.

United States immigration records show Leblanc was twice deported to Canada from Detroit. Later, however, he crossed the border and got as far south as Florida before he was detected. When arrested in that State on a charge of illegal entry he told the authorities he was a native of France and consequently he was deported to France.

On his arrival in France, falsity of his claim to French citizenship was discovered and he was returned to the United States.

FOREVER TRAVELING

Unless friends rescue him from his predicament, Leblanc is likely to be shuttled back and forth across the Atlantic indefinitely. He is endeavoring to have his relatives in Canada make application for his release and return to Canada, but it is understood this can be done only on payment of all costs of his sea voyage.

RUSSIA WILL SAIL ABOUT 7 O'CLOCK

Bound for China, Japan and the Philippine Islands, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia will sail from the Rithet Piers here this evening about 7 o'clock with nearly 900 passengers in all classes and a capacity cargo of Northwest products and overland freight.

The big liner, in command of Capt. A. J. Hosken, left Vancouver at noon to-day and will arrive here at 5.30 o'clock, remaining about an hour and a half to pick up local passengers, cargo and mails before putting to sea en route to Yokohama, her first port of call in the Orient.

SEATTLE SHIPPING

Seattle, Sept. 27.—The Arctic Transport Company's motorship Sierra was here yesterday discharging twenty-five live reindeer, more than 500,000 pounds of reindeer meat and 4,000 reindeer hides from Nome. The reindeer are to be shipped East for use at Christmas time.

Four carriers will lift parcel shipments of wheat from Port of Seattle elevators totaling 6,250 long tons. The ships are the Loch Goil, loading 1,000 tons; Theodore Roosevelt, 1,250; Paris City, 3,000, and Akibasan Maru, 1,000.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—The United States District Court yesterday agreed that the purchase for $1,000 of the steamer Annette Rolph, said to have cost $150,000 to build, was too much of a bargain—even at a United States marshal's auction sale. Complaint to that effect by the Rolph Navigation and Coal Company, owner of the vessel, led to the court's order that the vessel be resold. It was bought last week by Police Commissioner Andrew F. Mahoney at a marshal's auction to satisfy libel claims.

Purchase of the steamer Manchuria from the Panama-Pacific Line was announced by the Dollar Steamship Company to-day. The Manchuria is expected to arrive here from the East to-morrow and will sail for New York Saturday with Dollar Line officials aboard. The vessel will be reconditioned in New York for Dollar Line service.

With the sailing from San Francisco to-day at 4 p.m. of the Panama Mail liner Venezuela for New York, the company's new sailing schedule goes into effect. Ships will leave each Thursday instead of on Saturdays.

FAMOUS ARCTIC STEAMER NOW AT ESQUIMALT; WILL GO TO ENGLAND

Ss. BAYCHIMO

Which is now alongside the outfitting wharf at the Esquimalt plant of Yarrow's Limited waiting orders to proceed to England. The Baychimo returned last week from a trip to the far north after taking supplies to the traders at the lonely posts within the Arctic circle and bringing out the season's catch of furs, which this year was exceptionally light. The ship left Vancouver on July 6 last and visited Point Barrow and later reached a point only 650 miles from the Atlantic Ocean, the only steel vessel to reach that far north. Her keel was badly bent in the ice and in the Bering Sea she rode through terrific storms. She has been cleaned, painted and repaired at Yarrow's and will shortly proceed to London, where she will spend the Winter.

ASIA BRINGING PROMINENT LIST

Although First Cabin List Comparatively Light, Important People on Board

From China, Japan and the Philippine Islands the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia will arrive at the William Head quarantine station Saturday morning at 6 o'clock, according to a wireless dispatch received at the local offices of the C.P.R. this morning from Capt. A. J. Hailey, R.N.R., commander of the liner. She will berth at the Rithet piers about 7.30 o'clock.

Among the 485 passengers traveling on the liner are members of the Illinois baseball team returning from a tour of the Orient. They will leave the liner at this port and go from here to Seattle, where they will entrain for their homes in the East.

Others in the first cabin of the liner are Rev. G. F. Mosher, Bishop of the Philippine Islands, accompanied by Mrs. Mosher; J. W. Mears, prominent advertising man of the Philippines; A. F. Vanhall, business man of Holland, returning to Europe after a business trip to the Orient; Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, president of the National Geographical Society, accompanied by his family; F. Yamaji, of the Mutsui Company, and Y. Fukukita, of the Oji Paper Mills, on a business trip to North America.

VALUABLE SILK

Cargo on the incoming liner includes 3,000 tons of general freight and a raw silk shipment valued at $4,000,000. This will be shipped to eastern silk mills immediately upon the arrival of the liner in Vancouver. There is also a large consignment of mail.

PILCHARD MEAL MARKET

An increase in the demand of California markets for pilchard meal is noted in reports of Canadian trade commissioners to the Department of Commerce. The bulk of the pilchard oil in bulk is shipped to Eastern Canada and the Atlantic States from Vancouver Island but the meal is in heavy demand in the south.

Fish are running well on the coast, according to reports and a fair size fleet is engaged in handling the output of the various plants.

WORK PROCEEDING ON LAUNCHING OF PRINCESS ELAINE

Work is proceeding rapidly on the launching devise now being constructed at the Bay Street plant of the Victoria Machinery Depot to get the C.P.R. motor ferry steamer Princess Elaine back into the water. The Elaine jammed on the ways at the V.M.D. two weeks ago as she was sliding into the water after a general overhaul, and since that time has been high above the water line, while gangs of men are working to get her off. Officials of the V.M.D. expect that the work will take several weeks yet. Meanwhile the Princess Patricia is taking the Elaine's run on the Vancouver-Nanaimo schedule.

CHARLOTTE TO BE DRYDOCKED

Otter Will Also Be Given Cleaning and Painting on Marine Railway

To be cleaned and painted and given a general overhaul, the C.P.R. coastwise steamer Princess Charlotte will be put into the new Government drydock at Esquimalt to-morrow morning by Yarrow's Limited, which will do the work on her. The Charlotte has been in the Alaska service all Summer and since coming off that schedule at the end of August has been on the night run between Victoria and Vancouver with the Princess Alice. After being released from the drydock she will be put on the triangle run.

Yarrow's Limited will also haul the C.P.R. steamer Otter on the marine railway early this evening for a cleaning, painting and general overhaul. She will be released to-morrow.

The Salvage Queen, which went on the railway yesterday, was taken off this afternoon and brought around to her berth in the Inner Harbor, looking spick and span in a fresh coat of paint.

The Princess Adelaide, which has been at Yarrow's for some weeks, was back in the Inner Harbor to-day.

KAGA MARU NOW EN ROUTE HERE

N.Y.K. Liner Will Arrive October 6 With Passengers and Valuable Cargo

With passengers and cargo for Victoria and Seattle the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Kaga Maru is now steaming towards this coast from China and Japan, having left Yokohama on September 22, according to word received in the city this morning by A. H. Hebb, local agent, from company headquarters in Seattle. The Kaga is scheduled to arrive at this port early on the morning of Saturday, October 6. Exact time of arrival will be received later from the commander of the liner.

BIG SILK CARGO

The Kaga has on board one of the largest raw silk cargoes of the year. She is bringing 5,400 bales of the raw product and fifteen cases of manufactured silk goods, valued at more than $5,500,000. The liner is also carrying 3,000 tons of general cargo, most of which is for Seattle.

For this port the cargo is comparatively light there being but ninety-one tons, most of which is for transhipment to Vancouver from where it will be sent overland. Cargo to be left here includes forty-one bales of raw silk.

The liner has a passenger list of twenty-five aboard in all classes, four third-class being for this port. Twenty-one passengers, five cabin and three third-class, will go on with the liner to Seattle.

DOCK WARFARE IN AUSTRALIA

Two Thousand Strikers Chase Off Volunteer Workers

Challenge Transport Workers' Act Recently Enacted

Melbourne, Australia, Sept. 27 (Canadian Press cable via Reuter's). — About two thousand striking waterside workers forced the gates of the "Free Labor" bureau at Port Adelaide to-day, chased the volunteer workers out and thrashed them and then forced their way aboard some ships lying in the port on which the volunteers were working.

Trades union leaders assisted the police in restoring order and all the volunteer workers were taken to the city. Ten volunteers are reported to have been severely injured.

The Government announced to-day that the new Transport Workers' Act, providing for the registration of dock workers, will be extended to seamen if they refuse to report for duty. Under the act shipowners are forbidden to employ waterside workers who do not possess a federal license.

CHALLENGE ACT

The Transport Workers' Act recently enacted by the Federal Government providing for the registration of all waterside workers will be challenged by the leaders of the Waterside Workers' Federation.

The union leaders contend that the act which forbids shipowners from employing waterside laborers who have not obtained a federal license is unconstitutional.

This fresh crisis in the strike of waterside workers, who quit work a week ago when they refused to accept the award of an arbitration court providing for two engagements of labor daily instead of one, is supported by a big interstate conference of maritime and transport unions. An all-union fight against the Federal law is being planned by the transport and maritime unions.

PILOT INQUIRY IN ROYAL CITY

Court Hears Case of Competent Pilot Unable to Secure Employment

New Westminster, Sept. 27.—Capt. W. J. Boyd was one of the principal witnesses before the pilotage commissioner yesterday. He claimed he had been discriminated against because he could not secure employment as a pilot, although he held higher qualifications than men at present employed.

He referred to a marine accident in which Capt. C. J. House had, he said, run a boat ashore, although he was not a licensed pilot. Mr. Justice Morrison said that this had nothing to do with his commission, but was a matter for official inquiry.

Capt. Boyd submitted lengthy statements supporting his contentions.

Capt. E. A. Powys, the only other witness, suggested that men applying for pilotage commissions should not have qualifications lower than those required to pass for mate. He advocated the appointment of another pilot for New Westminster, making four in all.

DEPORTATION FOR ALLEGED MURDERER IN SPOKANE LOOMS

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 27—Possibility that Archie F. Much, charged with murdering Mrs. Katherine Clark, Boston, Mass., divorcee, may be deported to Canada loomed as United States immigration officers reviewed the files concerning the entry of the family into this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Much entered the United States from Canada at Eastport, Idaho, December 9, 1925. They had four children, all of whom were born in Canada with them.

Under the immigration law aliens may be deported upon the action of the secretary of labor if they become public charges any time within five years of their entry.

When her husband was arrested the family had only $1, with an overdue grocery bill and payments on a washing machine, with which she did public washings, making demands on her earnings. A friend loaned her $3 with which to buy some food.

Egg Producers Aim At Control Of Marketing

Whirlwind Campaign of British Columbia Egg and Poultry Pool Being Conducted by W. A. Landreth, President of the Canadian Egg Pool; Minimum Objective is Membership by Three-fourths of the Commercial Egg-producers; Campaign Being Conducted by Volunteers.

The pool system of marketing eggs and poultry, developed to great success by the Manitoba Egg and Poultry Pool, was explained to a large meeting at Luxton Hall last night by W. A. Landreth, president of the Canadian and Manitoba Egg and Poultry Pools.

"Canada to-day produces only eighty-five per cent of her consumption, a very unusual situation, and very favorable to producers," Mr. Landreth said. He said fresh extra eggs can be bought in the Summer months in Liverpool at a lower price than the British Columbia producers are obtaining. This condition handicaps countries having surplus to sell on the world market, reacting directly on the price in the home market. Such conditions should not affect Canada. Western Canada produces a surplus in eggs the development of the egg-poultry industry of the prairies keeping pace with that of British Columbia. A few years ago Manitoba imported eggs, while to-day the province ranks equal in exports with British Columbia, closely followed by Alberta.

UNITE IN MARKETING

From March to August no prairie market exists for British Columbia eggs, instead the provinces are in competition for the Eastern market. Mr. Landreth believed the solution to be unity of all the surplus producing provinces in one central marketing system.

He drew a parallel with the wheat pools which sell through one agency with great success. "We meet factions which claim the co-operative movement gains nothing for the producers, but when we find nations sending delegations to study our wheat pools, there must be something to it," he said.

Mr. Landreth referred to the central marketing system of the livestock associations, which had expanded from local into provincial bodies with some effect, but had only attained real success when all combined in a national selling organization.

The Canadian Egg and Poultry Pool only has three paid employees as supervisors, but has attained uniformity in product in the provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Alberta had made application for inclusion, but operation of a government-controlled co-operative would first have to be abandoned.

IN CANADIAN POOL

The plan of organization proposed for British Columbia egg producers included membership in the Canadian pool. Mr. Landreth could see no reason why eggs should sell in British Columbia for 27 cents per dozen when in Winnipeg 68 cents per dozen was the current price for fresh extras. He believed such a condition could not have existed had seventy-five per cent of the large producers of British Columbia been organized, as they would have complete control of prices and sales.

ALL ARE NEEDED

"You have gone through that condition, however, and I maintain that, had your eggs been marketed in an orderly way on the prairie market, we could have consumed them all without breaking the price. We needed those eggs, there is no surplus production of eggs in Canada, you must remember," said Mr. Landreth.

Co-operative legislation has followed the co-operative movement, laws being amended from year to year. In British Columbia the legislation has been drafted to suit district organizations rather than province-wide co-operatives, Mr. Landreth said, explaining that the original scheme of organization had been greatly changed to comply with provincial legislative requirements. Considerable criticism had been leveled at the contract finally evolved, but the speaker believed no other contract was possible under the circumstances. "I am sure that if you are dissatisfied with your co-operative legislation in this Province, your Government will gladly make changes when you make your desires known," he said, remarking that a determined will to co-operate, without formal authority, would bring just as great success as would be attained by incorporation.

EXPLAINS ORGANIZATION

The pool method of organization was explained, with the locals represented at the Provincial annual meeting by delegates. Handicaps existing in British Columbia legislation were pointed out, these including proxy voting and the right of individual members to attend. Both were deprecated as against democratic control. Prohibition of private sale of eggs to friends and relations is required by the contract as drawn to comply with the law, and has been much criticized. Mr. Landreth believed such terms too strict. "It should not have any clause in it which you would desire to break. I would have liked to see the producer given the right to sell to the individual consumer," he said, suggesting that a regulation covering the point would be within the powers of the annual meeting.

The agreement as drawn requires payment to producers of the full proceeds of sales less cost of operating the pool. Mr. Landreth showed the impracticability of this course, because all sales work out to fractional cents. He supported a holdback of a small percentage of sales, to build up a credit balance available for later distribution. This course has been adopted by the temporary board of directors.

SUCCESS FORESEEN

"I believe you will have the same success in British Columbia as has marked similar bodies in Prince Edward Island and the prairie provinces, where the poultry industry is doubling in many districts since the poultry pool started. Nothing better shows the satisfaction being given the producers. Scores are entering the business," he said. When the pool started in Manitoba the price was 13 cents, in one week the price was raised to 21 cents, and prices have never since been so low.

"Last year, when you British Columbia producers were getting your lowest prices we prairie egg people were enjoying our best market," he said.

Mr. Landreth asserted that, had it not been for pool operations in the prairies, the price last year would have dropped far below production costs. "The lack of a dumping act, which caused you in British Columbia so much concern did not trouble us at all," he said.

PACKERS SYMPATHETIC

Recalling that prior to pool operations the prairie prices were set by Chicago quotations, and were usually 6 cents below Chicago, last Summer the prairie prices were 8 cents above Chicago quotations. He declared that the large packing corporations had proven warmly sympathetic, and cases of indifference could be traced to individual employees. "The packers want their margin, so long as they get it they do not care whether the price is 20 or 30 cents. They have played the game. They are big people, they would not be big people if they did not play the game with the producers of the goods they handle," he said.

A margin of 4 cents per dozen protects British Columbia egg producers against imports from Washington, and is all that may now be expected. Mr. Landreth believed that Federal action is in prospect to prevent the marketing of lower grade eggs or products in British Columbia. He recalled that the Federal Minister of Agriculture had given "almost a promise" of protection against under-grade or seconds eggs. "This would mean our under-grade or seconds can be broken out and sold as frozen products. This would mean that the consumer would only get firsts and that is what they are entitled to," he said.

CAMPAIGN REVIEWED

G. P. Wallace of Vancouver, a member of the provisional board of directors of the British Columbia pool, told of the steps already taken on the mainland. "We all felt that something had to be done if we were to stay in business," he said.

Representatives of the Washington state egg and poultry co-operative had addressed a meeting at New Westminster also attended by W. A. Landreth, president of the Canadian pool, and that meeting had unanimously favored creation of a provincial egg and poultry pool.

Organization had been accomplished at a meeting of forty delegates held in Vancouver, and the contract drawn up by that committee was later approved at a largely attended meeting in New Westminster, which appointed a provisional board of directors.

Compliance with provincial legislation had required changes in the proposed constitution and contracts, this causing considerable delay, increased by the change in government, the Department of Agriculture having undertaken to provide the printing of contracts without expense.

SUCCESSFUL START

Ladner, Abbotsford and other mainland centres had heavily signed up the contracts as soon as they were available, and many other locals have been organized in the course of the past few weeks. The Island campaign opened in Saanich this week with great success.

M. A. Morrow asked for a definition of contract terms. Mr. Landreth explained that pool periods would be brief, with a falling marketing producing more frequent payments than on a rising market.

Norman Brown questioned the percentage payment plan and was informed that producers will receive cash advances of 85 per cent of the market value, the hold-back being added to the resale price as margin of security for bank accommodation and distributed at the close of each pool period.

"Last year the Manitoba Pool paid $14.25 in bank interest, our credit line being whatever we needed. We operate at the lowest overhead of any similar organization and at the end of our operations we have as much as $200,000 in the bank. The lowest balance we have had was $22,000, the money accumulated so fast," he said.

FINANCING EASY

"If the producers will accept advance payments of 85 per cent of the market value of their product, the Pool will have no further financial troubles," said Mr. Landreth, explaining the method of financing eggs in temporary storage in months of overproduction. "Canada does not produce enough eggs for the home market, a most favorable situation," he reiterated.

Mr. Brown questioned the co-operation of the Pools with the wholesale distributing houses and Mr. Landreth said the costs of dealing with retailers would be prohibitive.

"Experience with the few large packing concerns had shown we have no quarrel with them, so long as they get their 2 or 2½ cents for their services," he said.

IGNORE POULTRY IN FIRST YEAR

Mr. Landreth advised the new pool to take no interest in marketing broilers or other fowl in its first year of operation, when asked for his views on this aspect of the industry.

ISLAND REPRESENTATION

Vancouver Island will have three directors representing Victoria district, Duncan and Comox areas, under the proposed scheme of organization. The marketing of Island eggs would probably be performed through Victoria, as the centre of the area, but the general policies would be set out by the provincial directorate.

LARGE UNDERTAKING

"You are setting up a mighty big business when you set out to create, in a few weeks, an organization to control 75 per cent of the egg production of British Columbia. You are setting up one of the largest co-operative concerns in Canada," he said.

Stuart Yates questioned the contract to be signed, pointing out that the location of the head office is not inserted. Mr. Landreth explained the point had been left in abeyance pending the first meeting of the Pool. "This is only provisional," he urged. J. Trace considered the head office would be Vancouver, "as the Island stands no chance. Mainland votes will outnumber us every time." Mr. Yates believed omission of the head office location should be remedied, although not of vital importance.

THREE-YEAR CONTRACT

The necessity of a three-year contractual period was questioned by Mr. Yates. Mr. Landreth replied that the committee of forty-five delegates who drafted the contract had been unanimous in support of such a period, and was roundly applauded.

Mr. Landreth explained that the provision in the contract permitting a deduction up to one cent per dozen would probably never become effective, the competition for business and desire to set a record of achievement being an effective bar to burdensome imposts.

NO MINORITY POOL

Mr. Brown asked how many mainland egg producers had already signed contracts, and was informed by Mr. Wallace that over 300 are now enrolled. "There will be no British Columbia pool organized unless we enroll at least 1,200 poultrymen with flocks of more than 200 birds. There are about 1,600 such flocks, in the Province," he said, explaining that a later campaign will be arranged to sign up poultrymen with smaller flocks.

Mr. Landreth said the Manitoba pool commenced operations in 1922 with less than ten per cent of the egg production of the province, but immediately attained a betterment of eight cents per dozen in prices. The Manitoba pool now controls over eighty-five per cent of the commercial production of the province, having increased annually.

LOCAL CONDITIONS

From the floor Mr. Landreth was told that the Victoria wholesalers maintain a spread of five cents per dozen between the producers and retailers, to cover handling and packing. The pool would increase this to at least six and a half cents per dozen, and the questioner asked for an explanation. Mr. Landreth said that if Victoria wholesalers limit their charge to five cents "someone is losing a lot of money mighty fast." He called attention to the profits accruing to wholesalers from the demoralized market last Winter, when Vancouver Island egg producers received less than one-third the price of eggs in Winnipeg, the freight charge being only three cents per dozen.

T. Barclay said: "We are asked to sign something which is chiefly four feet of blank paper,' and demanded full details of the organization. Mr. Landreth said the whole organization is provisional, and the details would be decided by the first general meeting. "You are quite right, you lack information you should have had.

UNUSUAL CAMPAIGN

"This whole campaign is extraordinary. I never before heard of an effort to control seventy-five per cent of a big industry with so little publicity and so little money. There is no treasury, no one has given anything and everyone working has given his services without charge," he said.

Frank Goodsell, chairman, was the first to sign a contract. He recommended organization as good business. He pointed out that market conditions experienced last Spring, and in prospect, demand drastic action, while admitting that, were the poultry industry prosperous, he would not be so prompt in signing a contract. Many members of the audience signed at the close of the meeting.

A vote of thanks was tendered the speakers on motion of Stuart Yates and T. Barclay.

The campaign to enlist Cowichan poultrymen will commence on Friday morning with a meeting at Duncan. On Friday evening a meeting of Parksville producers will be addressed by Messrs. Landreth and Wallace, who will close the Up-island campaign at Courtenay on Saturday.

Prevent Curdling

Cream tomato and similar soups can be kept from curdling if the tomato and the milk are of even temperatures when mixed and the tomato is stirred into the milk.

Fresh Drains

Whenever cauliflower, cabbage or other strong vegetables are drained into the sink, the hot or cold water tap should be turned on immediately for a few seconds to wash out the drain and keep it smelling fresh.

Stuffed Tomatoes

A delicious luncheon or supper dish is made by stuffing fresh, peeled and hollowed out tomatoes with left-over corn cut off the cob and mixed with the tomato pulp, green peppers and butter. Season and bake until tomatoes are tender.

Picture Frames

Modish right now are the very narrow picture frames that are painted the same color that the woodwork or furniture is. There may be a pair of green frames and a pair of orange ones in a single room.

Nature never intended us to have the greater portion of our meals composed of mixed and adulterated foods. Frank Higgins, K.C., counsel for the accused, withdrew his election for trial by a higher court since the value of the goods stolen was under $10. The plaintiff firm is suing for $1,000 commission on the transfer of residential property. F. G. Fowkes appeared for the plaintiffs, and H. A. MacLean, K.C., for the defendant.

Nearly 200 guests attended the very successful dance held on Wednesday evening in the Lake Hill Community Hall under the auspices of the Woman's Institute. Huge vases of gladioli, dahlias and other flowers were used in the decoration of the main hall, and dainty vases of sweet peas centred the supper tables. E. Cambrey, with ticket No. 903, was the winner of the wool quilt, which was drawn during the evening. Members of the institute feel very grateful to Messrs. McCallum, Walter Peddle and Mercer for their assistance with the arrangements for the evening. The next dance will be held on October 10 under the management of the Community Centre social committee.

CITY NEARING MANAGER PLAN, DEAN ASSERTS

Change in Municipal System Growing in Favor, He Tells U.S. Convention

Gives Facts About Victoria in Unsuccessful Bid For Next Convention

Victoria is nearing the adoption of the city manager form of civic government, John Dean, candidate for the city mayoralty, assured the annual convention of City Managers of North America at Asheville, N.C., this week. If the City Managers' Association would hold its next convention here, he declared, the city would follow this gathering with the definite inauguration of the manager system. The convention, however, decided to go to Fort Worth, Texas, in 1929, Victoria coming fourth among twenty-eight cities in the balloting for the next meeting place.

While unsuccessful in bringing the next convention here, Mr. Dean was able to spread the fame of Victoria as a tourist and residential city all over the United States through delegates to the Asheville meeting. He distributed Victoria Publicity Bureau folders to the delegates and, in an address of invitation, gave the convention many facts about the city and its environs.

NEED CONVERSION

Mr. Dean's speech to the convention in part, was as follows:

"With your permission, I wish to submit the City of Victoria, B.C., Canada, as a candidate for location of our next convention. The motive, or inspiration, is first of all—as they say in all fraternal meetings—for the good of the order; secondly for the good of Victoria. May I call your attention to our map to point out how few managers there are in all the surrounding territory, containing the important cities of Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, Spokane in the United States, and Victoria, Vancouver, North Vancouver, West Vancouver, New Westminster, Chilliwack, Kamloops, Revelstoke, Nelson, Calgary, Edmonton, Saskatoon, Regina, Medicine Hat, Winnipeg, in Canada, all needing conversion, and none more so than Victoria.

WOULD ADOPT PLAN

"If I can succeed in getting the plan adopted in Victoria, we can readily see how it would influence all cities in that region in Canada, and those adjacent in the United States. It would be missionary work of the first class. Mr. Stutz can bear witness to my being an ardent advocate of the plan for the last three years. Two years ago I managed to get a referendum before the electorate, having first got authority from the Provincial Legislature. Owing to misgovernment getting worse, with a raise in taxation of $3.00 per thousand this year, together with the sinking in of the propaganda I have put before the electorate during the last three years, the chances for adoption are vastly improved, and a convention held there next year would clinch it, I believe."

Purchasing Agent May Be Selected Before Week-end

The post of Provincial purchasing agent, rendered vacant by the death of James Paterson, will probably be filled this week-end, Hon. W. C. Shelly, Minister of Finance, this morning intimated. Pressure of other business is ascribed as the cause of the delay in the appointment. An unusually large number of applications have been filed for the post.

Martin L. Pierce, research director for the Hoover Company and noted speaker on merchandising, salesmanship and advertising, has arrived in Victoria. During his stay here he will address the managerial staff of the Hudson's Bay Company. Recently he conducted the short course in merchandising at the University of Manitoba. Mr. Pierce is accompanied by J. F. Paxton, general sales manager of the Hoover Company Limited of Canada, and J. A. Hammond, district manager for British Columbia.

Octogenarian Of Esquimalt Passes Away

A picturesque character of the Esquimalt district, familiarly known as the "Robinson Crusoe of Goat Island," has passed in the death of James Johnson, eighty, who was found dead in his one-roomed cabin on the island by a Chinaman.

The funeral will be held to-morrow morning from Sands Funeral Parlors and interment will be made at the Royal Oak Burial Park.

An inquest into the death of Johnson was held by Coroner E. C. Hart, the verdict being that he died from natural causes. His body was found lying near the bed in his cabin, having apparently fallen forward while he was in the act of dressing.

Johnson was born in St. John's, New Brunswick, eighty years ago and came to this city in 1913. He had lived for many years on Goat Island by himself and was romantically named "Robinson Crusoe" by neighborhood residents, as he lived chiefly upon fish which he caught and vegetables which he grew in his small garden.

He leaves a brother and sister in Eastern Canada.

POOLEY ORDERS NORTHCOTT TO CEASE TALKING

Attorney-General Silenced Alleged Californian Slayer Yesterday

Attorney-General R. H. Pooley yesterday clamped a pall of silence upon the stream of publicity emanating from the Vancouver prison quarters of Gordon Stewart Northcott, alleged slayer of boys in California.

"I have stopped the outflow of publicity from Northcott," Mr. Pooley this morning stated. "It savors too much of yellow journalism. It was no credit to British Columbia that a man under serious charges should be allowed to be interviewed by newspapermen and broadcast such statements.

"I sent for Col. McMullen, superintendent of the Provincial Police and told him I would not stand for such performances, which were to be stopped forthwith," said the Attorney-General.

R. H. GALE IS SUED OVER HIS ELEVATOR PLAN

Claims For $23,962 and Share in Stock of Promotion Company Asked

Promotion stock and moneys advanced in connection with the negotiations with the Spiller elevator interests of London, England, for the erection of a 2,000,000-bushel elevator at Vancouver, at a cost of $2,500,000, is the subject of claims in an action started here by the Terminal Grain Company Limited and John L. Davidson against Robert Henry Gale and Harvey and Gorrie, garnishees.

The plaintiffs claim that Gale acted in negotiations with the Spiller interests, which were followed by the building of the elevator on a site leased from the Vancouver Harbor Board, but later made a new arrangement with the Spiller Company and nullified his former agreement with his backers.

CLAIMS MADE

John L. Davidson claims $23,962 for sums advanced to the defendant, and a declaration that he is entitled to a one-fourth interest in 30 per cent of the stock of the promoting company, the Terminal Grain Company Limited.

The Terminal Grain Company are suing for an accounting, a share in the $23,962 and other relief.

Henry C. Hall, K.C., acts for the plaintiffs in the action filed in the Supreme Court here. All parties to the suit are resident in Vancouver.

BIG REALTY MOVE NOW UNDER WAY

General Clark Predicts Wave of Buying in Vancouver Will Spread Here

A major move in downtown real estate is under way in Vancouver, according to General R. P. Clark, head of the financial house of R. P. Clark & Company, who came to Victoria to-day, in connection with business expansion here.

"The real estate buying move in Vancouver has since the early quiet Summer season spell, assumed important dimensions," the General said. "So far it is confined chiefly to high priced downtown properties. Almost daily, important transfers are being made at advancing prices.

"When money in the east loosens up after the crop is handled this Fall the Vancouver realty market will advance at a rate that will attract continent-wide attention.

"This move will spread to Victoria and you will have a good move here. Victoria looks more active than I have seen it. I can see that you, also, are now growing rapidly here."

Heintzman

FAMILY tradition and a deep love of craftsmanship is plainly evident in the Heintzman & Co. Piano of to-day. Nearly eighty years ago a Heintzman labored to give the world a worthy instrument. From that generation to the present time his ideals, vision and genius have followed after him. Discovery, improvement, success . . . then further improvement and greater success. On and on . . . until to-day the Heintzman is honored wherever music is known.

We invite you to visit our Music Showrooms and inspect the many magnificent models of this great Canadian instrument, or if you write, we will gladly send you an illustrated descriptive catalogue.

NURSES' HOME SITE CHOSEN

Directors of Jubilee Hospital Decide to Have Plans Prepared

A site for a new and enlarged nurses' home at the Royal Provincial Jubilee Hospital was selected at a meeting of the hospital directors yesterday, it is announced by Acting-Mayor F. R. Brown, a member of the board, to-day.

The new home, which will have accommodation for 225 nurses, will be built on the north side of the Richmond Road entrance to the hospital grounds. It will replace the present home, which has accommodation for seventy nurses, and which is found to be inadequate.

As soon as the estimated cost and type of the structure are determined, plans will be prepared. C. E. Watkins attended the meeting to advise on the architectural points involved.

Present accommodation in the nurses' home is overtaxed, and many of the nurses are billeted in the old wing of the hospital, it is stated. The new home is to provide accommodation for the existing staff and for future requirements.

CHAMBER HEAD RETURNS FROM TRADE PARLEY

FINE ADDRESS

The address given by Mr. Justice Macdonald at the convention banquet in his honor was declared one of the finest deliverances on the subject of Pacific trade relations ever given in the city of Los Angeles, said Mr. Fowler. Mr. Justice Macdonald discussed Pacific trade from its historical aspect, then going on to describe commercial possibilities through development of China.

Although purely a business convention, some time was given to entertainment of the delegates, said Mr. Fowler, a luncheon being tendered by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and a breakfast by the Los Angeles Breakfast Club.

VARIETY OF SUBJECTS

Mr. Fowler delivered an address on British Columbia's part in the foreign trade of the Pacific Coast on the second day of the convention. His suggestions and deductions were well received by the delegates. A variety of subjects was covered by the various speakers, includes besides trade matters, aeronautical development, motion pictures, port development and a wide range of matters affecting countries bordering on the Pacific.

William Pigott of Seattle, vice-president of the Pacific Coast Steel Company, was re-elected president of the council, and Mr. Fowler and H. R. MacMillan of the H. R. MacMillan Exporting Company, Vancouver, were re-elected to the directorate.

1929 CONVENTION

Seattle was selected for the 1929 convention city in face of a strong bid by representatives of Oakland. Seattle was chosen because of the fact that there will be no gathering in 1930 because of the National Foreign Trade Council meeting to be held in Los Angeles in that year.

Following the conclusion of the convention, Mr. Fowler and Mr. Justice Macdonald spent few days in California before returning here.

STOCK MARKETS — FINANCIAL NEWS — GRAIN MARKETS

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Before the market opened this morning, the Herald-Examiner said: "If wheat goes up above the top it made last Saturday, it will be taken by many traders to mean that the market is really on its way to much higher price levels. Advances will in all probability bring in increased buying from the outside as the theory grows that election bull market in grains is definitely under way."

The Journal of Commerce says: "The buying recently has been of more impressive character than the selling. Shorts had their inning. The rosy promise of the season is not being maintained and there are conditions developing that are not so good, while the conviction is growing that the first movement of our new crop will find a waiting outlet much in excess of that seen in recent years. If September goes out strong, this belief will be strengthened and December must reflect more closely the cash values."

(By B.C. Bond Corporation)

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Wheat: Foreign strength appeared in Argentine offers and was fully reflected at Winnipeg. Our domestic receipts were smaller than same day last week and well under last year's figures. We receive numerous reports indicating that not only our Spring wheat crop but that of Alberta and Saskatchewan has been over-estimated and that figures both sides of the line may have to be revised downward. Export business is reported as somewhat better.

Some Canadian wheat is said to have been sold to India and four full cargoes taken to load to Bombay. Canadian shippers are said to find some difficulty in securing better grades of wheat as may account for report to-day that the pool had sold considerable wheat right in the building.

Narrowing of the September-December spread here rather indicates that some hedgers or spreaders overstayed the market.

Recent advances in prices of lour has brought better shipping directions on old orders from the southwest mills.

Corn: We do not believe the strength in new corn prices is so much due to frost damage as to the fact that so many were carried away by what they considered bumper crop prospects.

We do not believe we have a bumper crop and probably when carry-over is considered not much more than average supplies especially when the crop must cover feeding requirement for more than a twelve-month period. That so large a part of the crop will probably be of good quality is cause for congratulation but even at that there is fifteen to thirty per cent of the crop in the main corn belt which is likely to be soft owing to low temperatures.

Liverpool wheat due ⅜ to ½ lower in morning.

WHITNEY LETTER

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Ltd.)

New York, Sept. 27.—Whitney of the Wall Street Financial Bureau says to-day:

LAST HOUR RAID

A rather well-organized raid was attempted in yesterday's market in the final hour, was successful for about half an hour but, in my opinion, was defeated before the close and will be more severely dealt with before to-day's market is very old.

"The theory on which it was based was that confidence in the market could be shaken if a large amount of selling appeared coincident with the decline in call money to six per cent, as much selling woud imply that advantage was being taken of a favorable development to liquidate stocks.

"The theory is undoubtedly good as a piece of theoretical physchology but unfortunately, for those attempting it, there are still too many stocks which are headed for much higher prices under the sponsorship of interests who know their worth and are perfectly capable of taking care of themselves.

"The decline in the call rate to six per cent which was lower than expected, plus the knowledge that many trades are coming into almost boom conditions, and the fact that the ratio of brokers' loans to market value of securities is at present at the lowest since December of last year, more or less removes to-morrow's Federal Reserve meeting and to-morrow's report on brokers' loans of any restraining influence on to-day's market. Consequently would recommend this another spot to buy stocks."

COMMENT

"If yesterday provided a good spot to buy U.S. Steel so does this morning particularly while it is available below 160.

"General Motors in last Saturday's market and the first two days of this week absorbed all the so-called wise selling following the appearance of the Sloan statement, and in yesterday's market resumed its advance which is destined to carry the stock to new record prices. No selling recommendation in General Motors has been given here and none will be given around current prices.

"Union Carbide recorded a new record and closed just above its previous record, which means that further new records are in the making. If the stock was not bought yesterday under 190 it can be bought to-day under 195.

"What has been said concerning Union Carbide applies to Electric Auto Light while available below 115.

"Inauguration of a new advance in Gold Dust, in anticipation of which you were advised to pick up stock yesterday, started sooner than expected with the result that counting the rights the stock is already established at a new record. I believe that stock purchased between 100 and 105 will prove to have been purchased within the right range.

"Skelly has established a new top for the year and is still recommended for purchase below 37½. Goodrich while below 85, American Can below 110 and Canadian Pacific below 220."

Bond Market Finds Holdover 7 Per Cent

New York, Sept. 27.—The bond market was quiet to-day with price changes mixed and fractional. Time money remained above the seven point with more funds reported available.

Coppers generally sold off evidently in reflection of the weakness of coppers although Tennessee Copper 6s were active at higher levels. A few new utilities became active, notably Northwestern Telephone 4½s and Ohio River Edison 6s, which gained more than a point each. Rails were irregular.

The foreign list was firm with Italian government issues advancing in the face of declines in the previously buoyant industrials.

Interest was shown in the new treasury offerings which is expected to take the form of treasury certificates. Holders of Associated Gas and Electric 5s debentures were informed to-day that conversion of the first block of $10,000,000 is nearly complete, and that conversion of the next block of $5,000,000 will be on a basis of $115 in debentures instead of $110 for units of two shares of Class A and one share of common stock.

Wall Street To-day

(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Leased Wire)

STOCKS BREAK FAST AT CLOSE

New York, Sept. 27.—Stocks broke fast in the last hour this morning. Steel Common dropped from 161½ to 157⅞; General Motors from 215⅛ to 209⅝; International Nickel broke the 125 support level and got down to 122.

New York, Sept. 27.—The evening edition of The Wall Street Journal says: Lack of responsiveness to favorable developments was the outstanding characteristic of to-day's market. Although both business and credit developments were stimulating, most of the principal trading issues were in supply when prices moved up, creating considerable nervousness in speculative quarters. On top of the highly constructive report in the Steel industry, furnished by the weekly trade reviews, freight traffic statistics for the week ended September 15 reflected flourishing conditions in major branch of trade. Loadings in that period totalled 1,138,000 cars, the largest volume for any week this year and a gain of 12,067 as compared with the corresponding period of 1927.

Conditions in the demand loan market were also favorable to the bull forces. Despite the fact that the treasury was contemplating withdrawals, including the mid-month settlement, a large supply of funds was available to the stock market. After renewals of standing loans had been arranged at 6½ per cent, the official rate dropped to 6 per cent, and many borrowers secured accounts at 5½ per cent.

Most selling was clearly corrective in character. Even large operators who have recently been reducing their lines are looking for no more than a technical reaction. They argue that the failure of the main body of stocks to make upward progress for several weeks indicates that the market temporarily has gone stale. But account of excellent kind of accumulating border on spots like Steel, American Can, Chrysler and Gen. Motors, based on the belief that the advances in these issues are still in an uncompleted stage.

Steel led a noon rally in industrials, recovering to 161½ from its earlier low. Buying of Steel was considerably more than the selling, being largely for the account of strong interests impressed by the favorable earnings condition now existing in the steel industry. With the corporations operating expanding rapidly and process much better for steel products.

In connection with recent buying of Steel, reports have been circulated that the management planned a two to one split up of the present shares. It is considered more likely, however, that any distribution to shareholders will take the form of segregation of units not directly concerned with actual steel production along the lines followed by General Elec. in passing along its holdings of electric bond and share.

Household Prod. shareholders will receive valuable rights.

Time money is fairly active with more on offer. Rate continue steady and unchanged at 7½ per cent up to 90 days and 7¼ per cent for longer periods.

Commercial paper is fairly active. Prime names are 5¼ per cent, other good names 5½ per cent and 5¾ with bulk of offerings at 5½ per cent.

Brokers' loans increase $54,232,000 for the week.

New York Federal Reserve Bank rediscount rate unchanged at 5 per cent.

MONTREAL STOCKS

(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Leased Wire)

CANADA EXPANSION REFLECTED IN RAILS; B.C. POWER ACTIVE

Montreal, Sept. 27—The expansion of Canada business as reflected by railway earnings is shown in a striking manner in the report of the C.N.R. for August, a tremendous gain in net earnings being revealed.

Money is still the chief factor in the local market. The retirement of $53,000,000 of bonds around the middle of next month by the Dominion Government is expected to have a certain effect upon the market, in that investments will have to be replaced and the tendency of a good many investors to purchase stocks is being stressed by market followers.

B.C. Power is very active. Sir Herbert Holt's predictions as to the future growth of the port and city of Vancouver is a good augury for the company. With only 202,300 horse-power out of an ultimate 654,000 horse-power developed, the company is in a splendid position to share in the future for which Vancouver is destined.

Declaration of the regular dividends on the common stocks of Abitibi and International Paper was reassuring for holders of newsprint stocks; and, rightly or wrongly, was interpreted as suggestive of a somewhat better outlook for the industry.

Montreal, Sept. 27.—For the last few weeks there has been curiousity, more than anxiety, on the part of the Street, to see Abitibi Power and Paper declare its regular dividends for the present quarter on the common and preferred stocks.

Directors have announced the payment of $1 on the junior issue and 1½ per cent on the new six per cent preferred issue, thus removing all doubts from the minds of shareholders.

Frazer was another paper advancing one point to 62.

Canada Power and Paper touched a new low on the movement at 31⅜, and Brompton reacted fractionally to 42½.

Brazalian attracted most attention in its department and after dropping one point to 59, rallied to 59¼. Power Corporation reacted to 75½, a loss of 1½ and closed at the low.

Shawinigan eased off one point to 88½, and Winnipeg Electric showed a decline at 108½.

Quebec Power held at 87 and Montreal Power declined one point to 103.

N.Y. Market Gossip

(By Quadra Investment Corporation)

New York, Sept. 27.—The market has evidently chosen to regard business fundamentals as of more importance than credit conditions in its appraisal of stock values.

Notwithstanding the continuance of tight money and the many pronouncements by banking officials and financial authorities that there are no signs of returning ease, the impression is too deeply seated in the public mind that the scarcity of funds is only temporary.

It has been so often asserted that the ultimate trend of capital return is to lower rates that the public is hard to be otherwise convinced.

It is noteworthy that only those stocks are particularly active at present that represent companies in the enjoyment of prosperous conditions.

Some of the coppers are still obtainable at prices affording yields considerably above the average afforded by the best grade issues.

In view of the sustained demand for the red metals and the prospect of still higher prices and correspondingly increased earnings of the low-cost copper producers, their purchase at present prices seems conservative compared to other portions of the list.

With increasing assurance of big sales during the coming year, the leading motor stocks are likely to record further advances before culmination of the move in this group.

The motor accessory stocks naturally can be expected to participate with the motors in any further upward movement.

Inside buying of the oils apparently presages the effectuation of permanent agreements for the restriction of oil production around present output. In quarters close to the industry it is believed that the posting of higher prices for crude in the mid-continent field is not far distant. Reduction in the price of gasoline is a seasonal development, but, according to reliable information, is not expected to go far this year.

Briggs Manufacturing made a new high in yesterday's trading. The stock was well taken, and we, in sponsoring the move in BGI, are confident that they will be able to put the issue up to 75 before the end of the year. Dividends are expected to be resumed at a $3 or $4 rate in the near future. The company is working three shifts a day and is reported to be booked to capacity for the next six months. We would follow the current move in BGI.

A. M. Byers has exceptional long pull prospects. Its control of the Aston process for the mechanical puddling of wrought iron places it in a very strategic position. Customers of the company are now demanding that their orders be filled with the wrought iron made under this newly perfected process because of its superior quality. Production is running at the rate of 1,000 tons a week, but will soon be increased to 2,000 tons. Although ABY has scored a sharp advance since our previous recommendations, we would maintain constructive positions and add to holdings on all favorable opportunities.

Willys Overland production continues at the rate of approximately 1,200 units daily, as against 550 at the corresponding time last year. The company should have no difficulty in showing at least $3.50 per share for the first nine months of this year and final net profit for 1928 is expected to approximate $5 per share. OV has not fully discounted these favorable developments marketwise and is likely to sell much higher before meeting with any important resistance.

National Power and Light has been meeting with excellent buying in the past few days by interests who feel that the company's future outlook is very promising. Its gross income has increased approximately forty per cent since 1924, while during the same period the net showed a gain of eighty-five per cent. National Power and Light is under the supervision of the Electric Bond and Share Company and offers attractive long pull possibilities.

General Cable—We have witnessed excellent buying in GGN recently and believe the stock is on the verge of a new forward movement which could easily carry it above 140.

GRANDVIEW SOARS THEN DROPS FAST

Vancouver, Sept. 27.—Once more the chief trading interest on the local stock exchange centred upon Grandview to-day, brokers boards showing columns of sales in the stock.

Pend Oreille is also having comparatively lively sessions, and Snowflake is becoming a trader of considerable interest.

The forenoon session saw Grandview open up seven or eight points at 74, sell up to 77, then drop off suddenly as far as 68.

Pend Oreille went as high as $14.15 from an opening of $13.75 then dropped back to $13.90. The market leader was sold in small lots. Snowflake jumped to 67 from an opening at 59.

There was not a great deal of interest in other stocks during the early session, although Big Missouri was firm and sold at 51. Most issues were neglected in the trading flurry that seems to have the Metaline district for its principal interests.

Whitewater was traded at $1.90, Woodbine at 11¾, and Topley changed hands in small quantity at 59.

The oils were almost entirely neglected, Fabyan bringing 10 and Dalhousie $2.

The general market underton was strong and stock response indicates wide interest in the mining interests.

Vancouver, Sept. 27 (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire)—The following wire has been received from Wellington Beaton, president, now at the Georgia River Gold Mine, by Beaton & Company:

"Work on summit vein is disclosing continuation of the high grade ore. Sending down samples first opportunity. Making good progress in all departments."

Vancouver, Sept. 27 (By Miller Court Teletype Wire). — Pend Oreille and Grandview opened actively to feature the session here to-day. Pend Oreille opened at 13.75 and climbed to 14.25, while Grandview opened up six points to 75, climber to 77 and settled back to 74 under selling pressure.

Snowflake, which also featured the market yesterday, opened up at 59 and gained an additional point during the first few minutes of trading.

Vancouver, Sept. 27 (By Miller Court Teletype Wire—Activity in Grandview was due to a report that R. F. Stewart, eminent British Columbia mining engineer, and W. B. Farris, K.C., of Vancouver, had been appointed to the board of directors of the Washington property. It is stated that Mr. Stewart will become managing director and engineer in charge of operations and that Mr. Farris will join the directorate representing strong Eastern Canadian interests. It is rumored that the entire Metaline area, including Pend Oreille, Grandview, Canyon and probably the Reeves McDonald properties in Canada, will be amalgamated.

Vancouver, Sept. 27 (By Miller Court) —A strike of high grade ore has been made at the bottom of the shaft on the Taltapin property, located at Burns's Lake, according to recent reports from R. M. Morgan, general manager. Mr. Morgan states that a crew of twenty men is employed on the property and that development work is proving satisfactory.

Hudson Bay Makes Operation Plans

Toronto, Sept. 27 (Stobie, Forlang Leased Wire to Meharey, Roe).—From a reliable authority who has just come from the Flin Flon district and claims to know the Hudson Bay situation, we received the following information:

"That down to the 900-foot level on the ore body they have twenty-six years of ore on the basis of 3,000 tons a day.

"That in putting their shaft down off the ore body to the south and west they have encountered another ore body which, on development to date, indicates additional large tonnage.

"That the average values of ore grades $13.40 a ton and that, after smelter deductions and other costs, slightly better than $4 per ton net would be realized in operations.

"For general purposes, the Hudson Bay Company have contracted for the haulage of 35,000 tons of freight during the coming Winter and their plans for smelters, mill and other equipment total an additional 55,000 tons. The company has brought from Russia one of the greatest world experts on mill and smelter construction, who is now in Manitoba and has assumed charge of construction."

NORANDA DROPS DOWN TO 48.25

Toronto, Sept. 27 (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire)—In point of interest, Noranda's continued decline dominated to-day's trading on the Standard Stock Exchange. Selling pressure still continues following the president's report, with liquidation freely taking place both in Toronto and New York. Over 17,000 shares changed hands during the five-hour session. Closing at 48.65-75, Noranda registered a sixty-point loss, 48.25 being the low for the day.

Trading in Mond Nickel was relatively quiet in comparison with its former activity. At 31.60-32.00, Mond was twenty points softer. Pend Oreille held strongly on a few sales, closing firm at 13.90-95, up fifteen points.

Abana at 3.75-85 showed a gain of fifteen points. One of the stocks which shows constant accumulation around its present price of 22.50, is Lake Shore.

Malartic at 1.70-1 was off three. Hudson Bay at 19.15-25 was off thirty-five. Granada at 26-27 was off one and a half, and Howey at 103-4 was off three.

Late in the session Monday took on a new lease of life and moved up to close at 2.05 bid, showing a gain of ten points for the day. Trading continues to be dull and featureless due to the fact that the market lacks a leader, which can pull it from its present inactivity, now that Noranda has lost some of its lustre.

TWO KILLED BY EXPLOSION AT OIL PLANT

Calgary, Sept. 27.—Two men were killed and one seriously injured at 11.15 o'clock Thursday morning when the main building of the Regal Oil & Refining Company at Manchester sub-division, here, exploded and was completely wrecked.

The dead: Geoffrey Hollis, Treator, and Alex. Antoniuk, plant fireman.

Injured—Charles Siefert, Company secretary and accountant, seriously, and A. W. Lancaster, office clerk.

Siefert was dragged from the ruins shortly after the explosions had subsided and rushed to the hospital.

Firemen recovered two bodies about 12 o'clock after tearing away a section of the wall which had fallen over them.

The cause of the explosion was unknown at noon.

The two dead and the injured men had just left the front office, where Lancaster was working, to go into the refining plant when the first crash came.

New Evidence In Murder Case

Seattle, Sept. 27.—The black leather belt worn by James Bassett, missing since September 5, was found in the "little brown house" by Detective Chief Tennant last week, it was revealed for the first time yesterday and will be used in the circumstantial evidence being woven around D. E. Mayer, and his mother, Mrs. Mary French.

Commodore Theodore Winters, U.S.N., brother-in-law of Bassett, believes collar buttons and cuff links from a shirt thought to have been burned in the house, belonged to Bassett.

Both Mayer and Mrs. French were to be subjected to another grilling today in the city jail where they were incarcerated following their arrival on the Admiral Evans last night from San Francisco.

Sees Good Financial Condition In Both England and Canada

Chicago, Sept. 27.—The expectation in some quarters that gold movement during the Autumn is going to relieve the tension in the United States money market is not justified, in the opinion of Benjamin M. Anderson Jr., economist of the Chase National Bank, New York. He was addressing the Illinois Manufacturers' Costs Association yesterday.

"England alone, of the important countries of Europe," he said, "is in a position where gold would be expected to leave, and the possibility of gold's leaving is increased, on the face of things, by the lower rates of interest prevailing in England as compared with those of the United States. The British, moreover, have been reluctant to raise their rates of interest, since there appeared to be a widespread opinion in England to the effect that even moderate increases in interest rates discouraged business, while low rates encourage business.

"None the less, the exchange market seems to expect very little gold from England this Fall. In the first place, the British have been accumulating gold laboriously in anticipation of the merging of the currency notes, and for this they wish to have on hand an adequate gold reserve.

"In the second place, the export of gold from England would automatically tighten money rates in England, and the British financial authorities, understanding this quite well, may be expected to raise their rates in anticipation of the export of gold, or to use other protective measures rather than to allow the export of gold to force them to raise their rates.

"Even if gold came to the United States from Europe in moderate volume there is no certainty that we should make a net gain of gold. Canada ordinarily takes gold from us in the Autumn and the Canadian exchange is usually strong during the Autumn months.

"The probability is strong against the expectation that we shall gain enough gold to relax our money market in the near future."

Tire Industry Turned Corner

By H. P. BLISS

New York, Sept. 27 (By B.C. Bond).—From the standpoint of net profits, the situation in the tire industry appears to have undergone a substantial reversal from the first half of the year. The inventory losses in the period ended June 30, due to the manner of decline in crude rubber, are a matter of record. Most of the companies completely cleared their books in their semi-annual and wrote off inventory losses, thus starting the second half of the year in a position to reflect a change for the better in raw material. Relative stabilization in price in crude appears to have been reflected, and there is confident opinion to effect that the trend in that commodity appears to be up, indicating, in contrast with the situation at the end of the half year, a favorable inventory position for the tire companies. Goodyear common has reflected to some extent the probability of a profitable second six months in which the losses of the first half will be more than offset. It is expected that Goodrich will show profits for the second half of the year. We believe that, in view of the betterment of the raw material, Goodrich is a good speculation.

Hupp is behind the motors. Evidence accumulates that earnings for 1928 will approximate $8 on the stock. Hupp is maintaining its trade position.

We would not advise taking profits as yet in long Fleischman nor National Power. Engineers Public Service is confidently recommended.

Among the utilities to be recommended are Electric Power and Light and American Power and Light.

BIG TIN TRUST IS FORMED IN MALAY

New York, Sept. 27—Advices from London received in Wall Street announced formation of the London Malayan Tin Trust Ltd., a combination of tin producing interests operating in the Malayan Peninsula. The trust, which will have a capital of approximately $10,000,000 will control sixteen Malayan companies holding yardage of proved dredgeable alluvial and tin oxide reserves exceeding 26,000 tons, valued at more than $200,000,000.

The dispatches said the trust was organized by the Anglo-Oriental Mining Corporation. The tin selections trust and the London Tin Syndicate in association with W. P. Hammon and Newton Cleveland, members of the Cuba Associated Engineers of San Francisco, mining field managers.

FIREMEN INJURED

South Vancouver, Sept. 27.—While fighting a fire yesterday, two firemen were flung from a ladder by the tremendous pressure on the nozzle of the hose when water was turned on at a nearby hydrant.

Fireman James Urquhart was picked up with a badly injured back and Fireman Matthew Morrison, is believed to have suffered a dislocated shoulder.

MANITOBA WHEAT CROP ESTIMATED 55,000,000 BUSHELS

Winnipeg, Sept. 27.—A 55,000,000-bushel wheat crop for Manitoba is estimated by the Provincial Department of Agriculture. There is an increase of wheat acreage of approximately 500,000 acres, the area in wheat for 1926 being 2,660,000 acres as compared with 2,195,000 in 1927. With an excellent yield assured the department estimates the figures for all classes of grain will be away above the ten-year average.

Threshing in Manitoba in some districts is completed, in others about one-fourth done, and over the whole province practically two-thirds completed.

Shoes are often stretched by having too large shoe trees inserted. Trees should be just the length of the shoe, as well as just as wide in the tip.

SUGAR

New York, Sept. 27.—The raw sugar market was steady to-day with prices 1-32 cent higher to the basis of 3.96 for spots, duty paid. Sales of 17,000 bags of Cuban from store and 15,000 bags for prompt shipment to a local refiner at 3.96 were reported. Canada was said to have purchased 19,500 bags of Cuban at a price equal to or slightly above that price.

The refined market was steady and unchanged at 5.40 for fine granulated, with a good day-to-day demand reported.

A Thrilling Story of Fate and the Famous Sweepstake

By E. C. BULEY

Joan shook her head.

"I'll not do business with him; I don't like the man."

"Oh, he's quite unscrupulous, of course," John said. "But he is so clever and so engaging with it that I can't find it in me to dislike him. And he would have to pay the money down, you know, if you made a deal with him."

"No," Joan decided. "I thought it all out after you had gone, and I decided to leave Mr. Gordon alone. I want to realize the money part of it, John. Why do you say that probably I'll step into all that money?"

"If you had seen the horse," John said, "just as I saw him, you would be able to realize it all. I know nothing about racing, of course; but I have observed wild animals for years; swift, strong animals. It remained for this day to show me the animal perfectly made for speed and strength. Yes, and perfectly prepared for a great test of his quality. I never saw such a noble creature in my life, Joan. I can hardly tell you; you must wait until you have seen him for yourself. After my glimpse of Parachute, I quite understood why his trainer was so calmly confident about his winning. . ."

"And if he wins, and I get all this money, do you know what I mean to do?"

John shook his head; Joan's thoughts and plans provided him with a constant succession of pleasurable surprises.

"Do you remember telling me, on Sunday, about the black tribe in the desert who were supposed to dig holes in the sand to collect their water; and who often found fish big enough to eat in the newly dug wells? You said you wanted to investigate the story, and be the first to discover those sandfish, or whatever they are?"

"It's probably an ingenious lie," John said. "But the yarn crops up in all sorts of places."

"Well, my infant, we are going to equip an expedition, all our own; and you and I are going to find those mystery fish."

"It's a great idea," John conceded. "There's no harm in supposing, for once. We haven't done much supposing about this windfall, up to the present. But supposing you won this money, you'd have to train for an expedition such as you propose. We should have to tackle something easier first, just to break you to safari."

"But it could be done?"

"I'm beginning to think it could," John agreed. "Hello, what's all this about?"

From the orchestra somebody in evening clothes was making frantic efforts to obtain the attention of the crowded restaurant. His gesticulations having drawn attention to himself and hushed the babble of talk, he announced:

"You will be interested to know that the news has just been broadcast that Parachute is a certain runner in the Derby. An official statement has been issued to the effect that after interviewing Mr. Masters, the owner of the colt, the race stewards have agreed that he shall fulfil his intention of running Parachute."

The applause and excitement showed that the announcement was of interest to everybody and the decision a popular one.

"I am beginning to realize it all at last," said Joan Kennett. "And now I shall have no rest until the Derby is run. Isn't it all wonderfully exciting, John?"

"It's all of that," agreed Blake.

TWO FLYING FOOLS

Enough has been told of Allen Franklin to show that he was a casual gentleman, with a hasty method of fulfilling the main purposes of life. In living, in marrying, and in dying, Franklin was alike casual and hasty; and in the process of returning to life again he ran absolutely true to form.

Blake's cablegram, informing him that Parachute was likely to win the Epsom Derby, provided him with a gratifying surprise. He had not kept himself posted on the subject of English racing; in fact, he had been careful not to display interest in English news of any description. But Blake's message caused him to look up the Two Thousand Guineas result, and he was more than surprised to learn that the colt he had purchased for so moderate a sum as a thousand pounds had shown himself the best of his year.

He was able further to grasp the fact that Parachute could not have run in the Two Thousand if his own death had been regarded as an established fact. A shrewd guess told him that it was now necessary to prove beyond all question that he was very much alive. Being a simple soul, Franklin decided that only his presence in England could satisfy the conditions; and he decided very promptly that he must be there.

He was the readier to make this decision because he had been reading in the newspapers of the needs of a certain Buddy Grant; a youthful millionaire who had purchased a new and improved aeroplane, and had wagered that he would fly to England. All Buddy Grant wanted, to permit him to start, was a companion to share the journey. And such was Buddy Grant's reputation for foolhardiness, and so lightly was his flying ability rated, that nobody would volunteer for the adventure.

Franklin had read of this need before Blake's cable came to his hand, and he had yearned to go. Furnished with the best possible reason in the world for volunteering, Franklin did not hesitate for one minute. He cabled to Blake and to Conran, sent a telegram to Buddy Grant in New York; and set out for that city with something like three hundred dollars in his pocket as a provision against possible emergencies.

He arrived in New York early on the Monday morning before Derby day, and made his way to the aerodrome where Grant kept his machine—an amphibian designed and built specially for the transatlantic journey. And there he encountered his first check; a pessimistic mechanic informed him that Buddy Grant was not to be found at the moment.

"He's, just finishing his usual Sunday souse, I allow," the pessimist suggested.

"But look here," Franklin objected, "we're going to start for England at daybreak to-morrow. I arranged it with Mr. Grant by telegram."

"The hell you did," said the mechanic unemotionally.

An eager listener to this short exchange of views was young Otis J. Kranhorne, a cub reporter who had been assigned the unimportant newspaper task of looking up Grant as usual, in order to make sure that there were no signs of a start being made. Otis J. had conscientiously visited the aerodrome, knowing that a cub reporter must expect to pass his period of probation on such hopeless assignments. Now a wild hope surged in his bosom, as he accosted Franklin:

"Say, do you really want to fly to England with Buddy?"

"It's most important," Franklin said. "I'm due on Epsom race course before 3 o'clock on Wednesday, when the race for the Derby is to start. But if I'm not there, you see, the race cannot start at all. Think of it," Franklin urged, warming to his subject, "the most important horse race in the world; and spoiled because we cannot lay hands on this Buddy Grant."

"Come along with me; I've gotta car outside," Otis said promptly. "I belong to The Record-Budget organization; and if anybody can find Buddy for you, we can do it. And if we can't, I'll undertake to fire you off on the English air route in time to start this horse race. What did you say it was; the Durby?"

"Darby," Franklin corrected sadly. "Other Derbies are Durbies, of course; but the Epsom Derby is the Darby."

"Hot dog!" murmured the cub reporter. "He may be bughouse, but he's real English, for a start."

So Otis whirled Franklin away to the headquarters of his organization and locked him in a waiting-room while he explained matters to the editor.

"I've got an English guy in there," he began, "who says he is due to fly to England with Buddy Grant at daybreak to-morrow morning. He says there's a race called the Darby—the most important race in Britain—and it can't be run except he's there on Wednesday afternoon. Sounded sorta bughouse to me; but I thought I'd take a chance on bringing him along."

"You did well," said his superior. "Now go to the sports room and get an English cable about this Derby race. We couldn't make head or tail of it, and it went on the spike. But it seems to fit your man."

Otis presently produced the cable, a brief statement to the effect that Parachute, the Derby favorite, was likely to be precluded from starting in the race owing to the probable death of his nominator, Allen Franklin.

"It doesn't read like sense," the city editor objected. "But if your man says his name is Allen Franklin, you've got hold of something, son. Have him up right away."

Allen Franklin came into the news room with his best air of politely wanting something in a great hurry.

"I say, you know, it's awfully decent of you to go to all this trouble," he began. "Have you got hold of this chap Buddy Grant? We ought to be laying in the ham sandwich and what not for the journey to-morrow."

"Am I speaking to Mr. Allen Franklin, then?"

"Certainly. You see, my colt, Parachute—I call him my colt, though he's running for another man, of course—my colt will not be able to start unless Grant is ready to attend to business. There's no chance, I suppose, that he will let me down, after coming all the way to New York to make the trip with him?"

"We've a cable from London, Mr. Franklin, which says you are supposed to be dead," said the editor, ignoring his question.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and Mama Kat

(Copyright, 1928, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

By HOWARD R. GARIS

One upon a time as Uncle Wiggily hopped past the cute little house where Tommie, Joie and Kittie Kat lived, the rabbit gentleman saw Mamma Kat sitting out on the front porch.

"Good morning, Mamma Kat," greeted Uncle Wiggily. "And how are you this fine September morning?"

"Not so well," mewed Mamma Kat.

"What is the matter?" asked Mr. Longears as he kindly twinkled his pink nose, thinking that might cheer up Mamma Kat.

"Oh, Pussy Kat teases me so that I don't get much rest and I am getting quite thin," mewed Mamma Cat. Uncle Wiggily, looking at her, could see that she was not as plump and sleek looking as she had been.

"Pussy Kat! Pussy Kat!" exclaimed the rabbit gentleman, thoughtful like. "I don't seem to remember——"

"She is my newest little kitten," went on Mamma Kat, "and though she is a dear and a darling and all that, still she is so lively and full of fun that she never gives me a moment's peace. She always wants to be playing."

"Yes, I suppose so," agreed Uncle Wiggily. "But, you know, Mamma Kat, that pussy cats and puppy dogs must play and even when they are very little they must pretend to catch mice or gnaw bones so they will be able to do those things really when they grow up."

She made a jump.

"I know all that, thank you," mewed Mamma Kat. "But if only Pussy would play with something else than my tail I could stand it."

"Your tail!" cried Uncle Wiggily in surprise.

"Yes, my tail!" yowled Mamma Kat. "Look at it!"

With that she brought her tail out from where it was curled under her and Uncle Wiggily saw that all the fur was rubbed off so that instead of being fuzzy and wuzzy it was bare, like a lead pencil.

"What did that?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"Oh, Pussy did that, chasing after and playing with my tail," said Mamma Kat.

"Why doesn't Pussy play with her own tail?" Uncle Wiggily wanted to know.

"That's what I tell her," said the cat mother. "But she seems to like mine. When I am lying down to rest Pussy will jump over me and grab my tail, pretending that it is a mouse. And when I twitch my tail out of her way she leaps after it, catches it in her mouth or claws and pulls out a lot of fur. Of course, Pussy doesn't intend to hurt me, but she is so playful and full of tail chasing fun that it has me worried until I'm quite thin."

"It's too bad," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Here comes Pussy now," whispered Mamma Kat. "I'll pretend to be asleep and you can see what she does. Hide behind a porch pillar."

When Uncle Wiggily was hiding, up crept little Pussy. As soon as the baby cat saw her mother asleep, as she thought, Pussy began to crouch down and creep and she switched her own tail to and fro and then, all of a sudden, she made a jump and landed right on her mother's tail!

Mamma Kat tried to switch her tail out of the way, but wasn't quick enough and Pussy caught hold of it and pulled out a little more fur.

"There! You see!" said Mamma Kat to Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, Mamma!" mewed Pussy. "I thought your tail was a little mouse!"

"You should let your mother have a little rest, Pussy," said the rabbit gentleman.

"But I love to jump at things that move and twitch," said Pussy.

"Yes, I suppose you do," said Uncle Wiggily. "Well, that is natural and right. But your mother must have some rest. Wait a minute and I think I can fix things for you," said the bunny.

Away he hopped until he found some loose chicken feathers. These he made into a little ball and tied them by a string so the feather ball swung in the wind from the porch railing. As soon as the feather ball began to sway back and forth, like Mamma Kat's tail, Pussy made a jump for it and caught the ball in her claws and teeth.

"Oh, what fun!" mewed Pussy. "May I jump at this as much as I like?"

"Yes," said Uncle Wiggily with a laugh, "chew and claw the feather ball all you please. You can't harm it." So Pussy did and in a few days of rest Mamma Kat's tail grew some more fur and was as good as ever. And Pussy could practice catching mice with the feather ball. So everything was fine. And if the blackboard doesn't jump out of the window in the night and scrub itself white with chalk, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and Papa Kat.

Cigar Stores To Widen Chain Field

New York, Sept. 27.—Chain store systems which were established for the distribution of cigars and cigarettes are passing through a stage of development which will bring the majority of them within the next few years into the retailing not merely of tobacco products but also of drugs and other kindred lines of quick turnover small merchandise, according to W. T. Posey, vice-president of the United Cigar Company.

"This transition," Mr. Posey declared, "is largely brought about through the enormous increase in the value of our realty holdings, virtually all of which are well-selected corners. In a measure, these had to be protected, so growth and expansion was necessary. The result is that we have now converted a number of cigar stores into combination stores, some selling a complete line of drugs.

"Our own company this year has acquired sixty-eight drug stores and eighty-two combination stores. The gross business of a combination store is now running approximately $100,000 a month, while as an original United Cigar Store the gross business would be but $30,000 a month. This, by the way is the largest number of stores that we have ever opened in one year and indicates, in a substantial measure, the confidence that our board has in the general business situation."

Veteran Salesman Of Montreal Dead

Montreal, Sept. 27—A. E. McClaskey, one of the best known commercial travelers of the last generation, died here Wednesday at the age of seventy-six.

The late Mr. McClaskey sold tobacco and cigars and his work took him from coast to coast.

Trouble Signs For Those Past 40

Bladder Weakness, Nervousness, Headaches, Painful, Scanty Urination, Getting-up-Nights

The embarrassing annoyance and genuine misery of Bladder Weakness, often brings "discomforts of old-age" to those who really ought to be in the very prime of life.

Countless thousands, perhaps seven out of ten, of folks near middle life are pitiful victims of Headaches, Nervousness, Pains in back and down through groins, frequent but scanty and painful urination—Getting-up-nights.

While serious, if neglected—it is ordinarily a simple matter to relieve these troubles by the pleasant home use of Dr. Southworth's URATABS, which have been victorious in thousands of cases, after other treatments have failed.

No matter how serious or of how long standing your condition may be you can quickly prove the value of URATABS without risk of cost—for any good druggist will supply you on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or money back. If URATABS bring you quick and certain comfort, you will be greatly pleased. If they do not fully satisfy, their use will cost you nothing. Try URATABS to-day, and see what a difference they make. Book of Knowledge

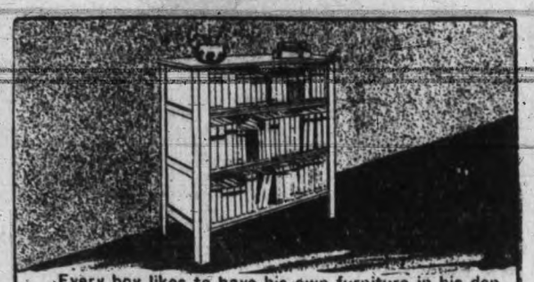
Sketches by Bessey. Synopsis by Brueckner.

A SIMPLE BOOKCASE

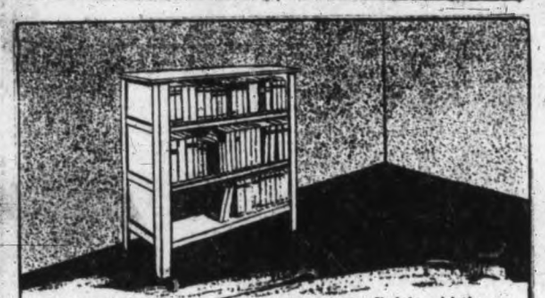


Every boy likes to have his own furniture in his den or shack outside the home. A bookcase like the one pictured here can be made from big packing boxes or canned soup boxes. The boxes should be about 12 inches high, 10 inches deep and 30 inches long. You need three boxes just alike in size and shape. Maybe the grocer will give you three such boxes.

By NEA, Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge, Copyright, 1923-26.

The legs are eight strips, such as you previously used in making box furniture. They should be four inches longer than the height of the three boxes combined.

Nail the three boxes together, one on top of the other and put facing strips on the sides where the box-edges meet. The top is a board a little larger than the box dimensions.



If you wish to give the case a neater finish add three narrow strips of wood over the box-edges on the front. Be sure they fit lengthwise and they will conceal the edges of the boxes. Now your bookcase is ready for whatever varnish or stain your prefer.

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

To-morrow's Horoscope

Except in the early morning this is read as an unfortunate day, according to astrology. It is well to start at dawn if one desires to accomplish much while this configuration prevails.

Women are well directed by the stars to-day, if they stay within the home. Love affairs, however, are decidedly perilous while this rule continues.

This is read as an unlucky day for signing leases or contracts. Financial losses appear to be indicated.

Newspapers should be especially careful to avoid possible libel suits in publications under this direction of the stars.

Discussions and quarrels may be numerous at this time when much bitterness may develop among persons who hold opposite faiths in politics or religion.

Divorces will continue to multiply through the remaining months of the year, but the seers warn the churches against too drastic measures for combatting the evil.

The stars that encouraged the presentation of pathological problems have lost their power, it is declared, and better plays are to be expected.

Saturn is supposed to involve England in many troubles that bring about amazing governmental conditions.

All the signs appear to presage for the United States continued prosperity and remarkable strides in commerce.

The theatre is to attain to a civic interest that in time will assure splendid attainments for dramatists and actors, astrologers prophesy.

Art is to become a national concern and there will be much encouragement for painters, sculptors and musicians.

Persons whose birthdate it is should be exceedingly careful to avoid fraud that will cause losses. Contracts should be made with caution in the coming year. As a rule the subjects of Libra are not keen in business affairs and they do well when they entrust their finances to expert management.

Children born on this day should prosper greatly, if wisely directed. The subjects of this sign are often dreamers who care more for Bohemia than for the business world. Many are extremely talented and able to win supreme success. Madame Patti belonged to the Libra sign.

Pender Island

Pender Island, Sept. 27.—The annual meeting of the Parent-teacher Association was held in Hope Bay Hall on Tuesday, with the president, Mrs. W. B. Johnston, in the chair. A number of business matters, including the purchase of the award for the window box competition for senior grade, and sports equipment for the new term, were dealt with. Appreciation of the assistance being given was voiced by the teachers, and helped to stimulate the efforts of the association. Short articles were read by members, after which the election of officers took place, resulting in the re-election of all except that of secretary. Miss Jean Graham, who asked to be relieved of this office, owing to pressure of other duties, was succeeded by Mrs. S. P. Corbett. The meeting adjourned for a social hour and refreshments.

Dr. Morgan, dentist, has been attending patients in his temporary quarters at L. Auchterloine's, during the last week.

Alterations and improvements to the Port Washington Hall have been going on under contract by Messrs. Grimmer Brothers.

AT THE THEATRES

AMUSING COMEDY NOW SHOWING AT CAPITOL THEATRE

New combinations in film lovers are always interesting. The most novel to date, perhaps, is that of genial, whimsically humorous Jack Mulhall and fiery Greta Nissen in "The Butter and Egg Man," at the Capitol Theatre to-day, Friday and Saturday.

Mulhall, whose wide popularity in First National pictures won him the featured title role in "The Butter and Egg Man," has played opposite many stars and leading women. Never before this, however, has he exchanged screen kisses with a blonde, flaming, exotic young lady like the very Scandinavian Miss Nissen.

Richard Wallace directed the picture. In supporting character roles that will bring smiles of fond remembrance to those who have seen the stage play, are Gertrude Astor as Mrs. Lehman, Sam Hardy and William Demarest as the shady play promoters.

The stage attractions at the Capitol Theatre for to-day, Friday and Saturday, offer a programme that is outstanding in variety and entertainment. Among the artists appearing are Frederick Stone, Irish tenor in song selections; Peggy and Vincent, a comedy team, and Sandberg and Fox, well-known comedy dance duo.

LEWIS STONE AT DOMINION PLAYS LEADING ROLE

Thrilling adventure, exotic romance, picturesque scenes and characters, and a stirring story of love and revolt were all found in one picture when Universal's gripping production, "The Foreign Legion," opened at the Dominion Theatre to-day.

Not for a long time has an audience here seen a picture that equalled "The Foreign Legion" in any of the above features. None will soon forget the horror of the iron discipline, the fateful situations into which the hero is thrown or the remarkable character which causes his downfall—a ravishing beauty-blonde, hot-blooded and deadly.

Norman Kerry and Lewis Stone, two of the best-known actors on the screen, undoubtedly do the finest work of their long and successful careers in the starring roles. Kerry as Richard, the unfortunate victim of circumstances, and Stone as his unknown father, Colonel Destinn, have opportunities for acting, that rarely come in other pictures. Needless to say, both of these skilful players make the most of them.

HARRISON FORD PLAYS LEAD AT COLUMBIA NOW

Harrison Ford, one of the most popular leading men of the screen, was selected to play the part of a reporter in "Let 'er Go, Gallegher!" a Pathe-De Mille picture, the feature of the Columbia Theatre to-day.

Appearing with Marie Prevost in her recent pictures as leading man, Harrison in this picture portrays a young reporter. "The Girl in the Pullman," "Getting Gertie's Garter," "The Night Bride" and "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" are among the films in which Harrison Ford has enacted the male lead opposite Miss Prevost.

Elinor Fair plays the role of the girl in "Let 'er Go, Gallegher!" in which Junior Coghlan is individually featured. Elliott Clawson prepared the scenario and Elmer Clifton directed.

Escaped Murderer Is Found in Jail

Lethbridge, Sept. 27—Robert Percy Lofton, convicted murderer, was taken from jail here Wednesday morning by Sheriff Elizey of McComb, Miss., on his return journey to the jail at Magnolia, Miss., from which he escaped some months ago. His identity was discovered while serving a sentence here for theft.

GEORGE ROBEY HERE MONDAY

England's Great Comedian Will Play Here at Royal All Next Week

When George Robey brings "Bits and Pieces" to the Royal-Victoria Theatre for the first half of the week commencing Monday, October 1, he will find old friends among audiences who will probably make him give more encores than he ever intended. He has been advised to brush up on some of his old war-time favorites in order that the ex-soldiers who remember him so well may dream back a dozen years and join in his choruses and ditties. George Robey was a favorite among the Canadians from the days of "The Bing Boys" to the time they sailed for Canada. Probably very few who went overseas missed seeing him, and those who came back cherish happy recollections of his fun-making.

"Bits and Pieces" kept London laughing from before Christmas until a few weeks ago. Then it went on tour in the provinces because of contracts that had been signed up, and it comes to Canada also because of a year-old contract. Otherwise it would still be one of London's favorites. The restless Robey, who never produced a poor show yet, retains "Bits and Pieces" until he reaches Victoria, and from here back across Canada he presents an entirely new show he has been preparing for some time, "Between Ourselves," which will be shown here next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The first to be presented here is full of rollicking fun, beautiful dancing and innumerable specialties. Called a revue, it is more of the old-time music hall performance. It is full of variety and there is not a dull moment in it. The "King of Fun," of course, is generous to the audience, being seen in no less than twelve different specialties, all of them teeming with Robeyisms.

He is very ably supported by Miss Marie Blanche, a favorite all over England, and his company is entirely made up of star turns.

COLISEUM FILM STORY OF WEST POINT ACADEMY

Spectacular dress parade and other manoeuvres of the cadet corps at West Point are elaborate details to William Haines's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer vehicle, "West Point," at the Coliseum Theatre today. Haines, who plays a cadet in the picture, drilled in all these scenes with the cadets. The actor himself graduated from Staunton Military Academy—and had further military experience in "Tell It to the Marines."

Adelaide Heilbron, who is admitted to possess admirable comedy sense, is the author of the original story, "French Dressing," now showing at the Playhouse Theatre. It is an Allan Dwan production, presented by Robert Kane for First National Pictures. H. B. Warner, Clive Brook, Lois Wilson and Lilyan Tashman are in the cast.

"HELEN OF TROY" NOW SHOWING AT VARIETY THEATRE

No motion picture is complete without an announcement concerning its unusual features and statistics, so here it is on First Nationals "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," now showing here at the Variety Theatre.

It is the first American appearance of Maria Corda, noted European actress who plays the role of the beautiful Helen, and it is the first appearance in many years of Lewis Stone sans his moustache.

It is the first picture to be made with a mythological legend as its basis.

It is the only picture of this scale ever to be made with satire as its motif and without the usual half-nelson of hero and heroine at the finish.

More than 4,000 extras appear in the picture, although it must be added in the interests of truth, never all at once.

It has never been heralded as an epic although public opinion may regard it as such.
